Memorandum For 2014 Hominid Evolution:

Exploring the Collective Unconscious in the Age of Digital Media Schafer, Stephen Brock, 2016-01-28 For decades we have witnessed the emergence of a media age of illusion that is based on the principles of physics the multidimensionality immateriality and non locality of the unified field of energy and information as a virtual reality As a result a new paradigm shift has reframed the cognitive unconscious of individuals and collectives and generated a worldview in which mediated illusion prevails Exploring the Collective Unconscious in a Digital Age investigates the cognitive significance of an altered mediated reality that appears to have all the dimensions of a dreamscape This book presents the idea that if the digital media sphere proves to be structurally and functionally analogous to a dreamscape the Collective Unconscious researched by Carl Jung and the Cognitive Unconscious researched by George Lakoff are susceptible to research according to the parameters of hard science This pivotal research based publication is ideally designed for use by psychologists theorists researchers and graduate level students studying human cognition and the influence of the digital media revolution Modern Humans

John F. Hoffecker, 2017-10-31 Modern Humans is a vivid account of the most recent and perhaps the most important phase of human evolution the appearance of anatomically modern people Homo sapiens in Africa less than half a million years ago and their later spread throughout the world Leaving no stone unturned John F Hoffecker demonstrates that Homo sapiens represents a major transition in the evolution of living systems in terms of fundamental changes in the role of non genetic information Modern Humans synthesizes recent findings from genetics including the rapidly growing body of ancient DNA the human fossil record and archaeology relating to the African origin and global dispersal of anatomically modern people Hoffecker places humans in the broad context of the evolution of life emphasizing the critical role of genetic and non genetic forms of information in living systems as well as how changes in the storage transmission and translation of information underlie major transitions in evolution He also draws on information and complexity theory to explain the emergence of Homo sapiens in Africa several hundred thousand years ago and the rapid and unprecedented spread of our species into a variety of environments in Australia and Eurasia including the Arctic and Beringia beginning between 75 000 and 60 000 years ago This magisterial work will appeal to all with an interest in the ever fascinating field of human evolution Natural

Kollar,Muhammad Shafiq,2016-07-27 This book gathers scholars from the three major monotheistic religions to discuss the issue of poverty and wealth from the varied perspectives of each tradition It provides a cadre of values inherent to the sacred texts of Jews Christians and Muslims and illustrates how these values may be used to deal with current economic inequalities Contributors use the methodologies of religious studies to provide descriptions and comparisons of perspectives from Judaism Christianity and Islam on poverty and wealth The book presents citations from the sacred texts of all three religions The contributors discuss the interpretations of these texts and the necessary contexts both past and present for deciphering the stances found there Poverty and Wealth in Judaism Christianity and Islam identifies and details a foundation of common values upon which individual and institutional decisions may be made

Science and the Production of Ignorance Janet Kourany,Martin Carrier,2020-02-18 An introduction to the new area of ignorance studies that examines how science produces ignorance both actively and passively intentionally and unintentionally We may think of science as our foremost producer of knowledge but for the past decade science has also been studied as an important source of ignorance The historian of science Robert Proctor has coined the term agnotology to refer to the study of ignorance and much of the ignorance studied in this new area is produced by science Whether an active or passive construct intended or unintended this ignorance is in Proctor s words made maintained and manipulated by science This volume examines forms of scientific ignorance and their consequences A dialogue between Proctor and Peter Galison offers historical context presenting the concerns and motivations of pioneers in the field Essays by leading historians and philosophers of science examine the active construction of ignorance by biased design and interpretation of experiments and empirical studies as seen in the false advertising by climate change deniers the virtuous construction of ignorance for example by curtailing research on race and gender related cognitive differences and ignorance as the unintended by product of choices made in the research process when rules incentives and methods encourage an emphasis on the beneficial and commercial effects of industrial chemicals and when certain concepts and even certain groups interests are inaccessible in a given conceptual framework Contributors Martin Carrier Carl F Cranor Peter Galison Paul Hoyningen Huene Philip Kitcher Janet Kourany Hugh Lacey Robert Proctor Londa Schiebinger Miriam Solomon Torsten Wilholt

The Truth about Language Michael C. Corballis, 2024-05-31 Evolutionary science has long viewed language as basically a fortunate accident a crossing of wires that happened to be extraordinarily useful setting humans apart from other animals and onto a trajectory that would see their brains and the products of those brains become increasingly complex But as Michael C Corballis shows in The Truth about Language it s time to reconsider those assumptions Language he argues is not the product of some big bang 60 000 years ago but rather the result of a typically slow process of evolution with roots in elements of grammatical language found much farther back in our evolutionary history Language Corballis explains evolved as a way to share thoughts and crucially for human development to connect our own mental time travel our imagining of events and people that are not right in front of us to that of other people We share that ability with other animals but it was the development of language that made it powerful it led to our ability to imagine other perspectives to imagine ourselves in the minds of others a development that by easing social interaction proved to be an extraordinary evolutionary advantage Even as his thesis challenges such giants as Chomsky and Stephen Jay Gould Corballis writes accessibly and wittily filling his account with unforgettable anecdotes and fascinating historical examples The result is a book that s perfect both for deep engagement and as brilliant fodder for that lightest of all forms of language cocktail party chatter

A Joyfully Serious Man Matteo Bortolini, 2025-11-18 The brilliant but turbulent life of a public intellectual who transformed the social sciences Robert Bellah 1927 2013 was one of the most influential social scientists of the twentieth century Trained as a sociologist he crossed disciplinary boundaries in pursuit of a greater comprehension of religion as both a cultural phenomenon and a way to fathom the depths of the human condition A Joyfully Serious Man is the definitive biography of this towering figure in modern intellectual life and a revelatory portrait of a man who led an adventurous yet turbulent life Drawing on Bellah s personal papers as well as in depth interviews with those who knew him Matteo Bortolini tells the story of an extraordinary scholarly career and an eventful and tempestuous life He describes Bellah s exile from the United States during the hysteria of the McCarthy years his crushing personal tragedies and his experiments with sexuality Bellah understood religion as a mysterious human institution that brings together the scattered pieces of individual and collective experiences Bortolini shows how Bellah championed intellectual openness and innovation through his relentless opposition to any notion of secularization as a decline of religion and his ideas about the enduring tensions between individualism and community in American society Based on nearly two decades of research A Joyfully Serious Man is a revelatory chronicle of a leading public intellectual who was both a transformative thinker and a restless passionate seeker

Handbook of Cognitive Archaeology Tracy B. Henley, Matt J. Rossano, Edward P. Kardas, 2019-07-24 The remains that archaeologists uncover reveal ancient minds at work as much as ancient hands and for decades many have sought a better

Software Theory Federica Frabetti, 2014-11-17 The cultural and philosophical study of software is crucial both within and outside of the university at an international level and across disciplines Software is increasingly considered the focus of digital media studies because of the perceived need to address the invisibility ubiquity and power of digital media Yet software remains quite obscure to students and scholars in media studies the social sciences and the humanities This unique book engages directly in close readings of technical texts and computer code in order to show how software works and in what sense it can be considered constitutive of culture and even of human thought Federica Frabetti combines this with an engagement with thinkers such as Bernard Steigler and Jacques Derrida to problematize the very nature of the conceptual system on which software is based and which has shaped its historical evolution The book argues for a radical demystification of software and digital technologies by addressing the mystery that surrounds its function and that affects our comprehension of its relationship between technology philosophy culture and society
