Chapter 1 Introduction

8. In chapter 4, Jim predicts much of his future using a single football. Why do you think Twain includes this event? How does it further develop characterization, and what other purpose might it serve?

12. How does the new judge tell Huck, and what lesson does the judge learn?
- The new judge tells Huck by telling Huck to go into his father's cupboard and something to refuse. Huck's father, Mr. Judge, says the judge, saying to tell him, new judge for children and people sitting down in the yard. The judge learns that some people, like Huck's father, cannot be in any better.

11. Where does Huck's father take him and why does Huck feel the need to run away from home? Huck's father takes him to a cabin in the woods and backfires and roasts him in the cabin-spoons. Huck feels the need to run away from home because he realizes that it is his only option to escape his father's abuse.
12. How does Huck's father react to seeing a free-black man in town? What does this reveal about his character and beliefs? Huck's father is outraged that a black man is well-dressed, educated, and even has the right to vote, which he says is an insult to himself and others who consider themselves superior. Based solely on their race, this reaction reveals his deep-seated racism and ignorance, as well as his sense of entitlement and superiority.

- 1.3. How does a fish breathe to escape from the gillnet and take to open depths?
 Fishes breathe through gills. In the water, when they open their mouth, water enters the mouth and passes over the gills. The oxygen in the water is absorbed by the gills and the carbon dioxide is released into the water.
