complete this essential guide to student engagement Key Concepts in Curriculum Studies Judy Wearing, Marcea Ingersoll, Christopher DeLuca, Benjamin Bolden, Holly Ogden, Theodore Michael Christou, 2019-07-16 Offering an accessible entry into curriculum theory this book defines and contextualizes key concepts for novice and experienced students Leading scholars in curriculum studies provide short anchor texts that introduce define and situate contemporary curriculum theory constructs Each anchor text is followed by two concise creative keyword responses that demonstrate varied perspectives and connections allowing readers to reflect on and engage with the personal relevance of these fundamental concepts Useful to instructors and scholars alike this book explains keyword writing as a teaching and learning strategy and invites readers to enter the complicated conversations of contemporary curriculum theory through their own creative personal responses Featuring wide ranging nuanced and varied commentary on major relevant themes as well as discussion questions for students this book is an essential text for doctoral and masters level courses in curriculum studies From What Is to What If Rob Hopkins, 2019-10-15 Big ideas that just might save the world The Guardian The founder of the international Transition Towns movement asks why true creative positive thinking is in decline asserts that it s more important now than ever and suggests ways our communities can revive and reclaim it In these times of deep division and deeper despair if there is a consensus about anything in the world it is that the future is going to be awful There is an epidemic of loneliness an epidemic of anxiety a mental health crisis of vast proportions especially among young people There s a rise in extremist movements and governments Catastrophic climate change Biodiversity loss Food insecurity The fracturing of ecosystems and communities beyond it seems repair The future to say nothing of the present looks grim But as Transition movement cofounder Rob Hopkins tells us there is plenty of evidence that things can change and cultures can change rapidly dramatically and unexpectedly for the better He has seen it happen around the world and in his own town of Totnes England where the community is becoming its own housing developer energy company enterprise incubator and local food network with cascading benefits to the community that extend far beyond the projects themselves We do have the capability to effect dramatic change Hopkins argues but we re failing because we ve largely allowed our most critical tool to languish human imagination As defined by social reformer John Dewey imagination is the ability to look at things as if they could be otherwise The ability that is to ask What if And if there was ever a time when we needed that ability it is now Imagination is central to empathy to creating better lives to envisioning and then enacting a positive future Yet imagination is also demonstrably in decline at precisely the moment when we need it most In this passionate exploration Hopkins asks why imagination is in decline and what we must do to revive and reclaim it Once we do there is no end to what we might accomplish From What Is to What If is a call to action to reclaim and unleash our collective imagination told through the stories of individuals and communities around the world who are doing it now as we speak and witnessing often rapid and dramatic change for the better Neo-Pentecostalism Nelson Kalombo Ngoy, 2019-05-23 For centuries Pentecostalism has played a significant role in oppressively shaping the life of formerly colonized people of Africa Moreover its theologies have perpetuated neocolonial policies developed through the lens of colonial legacies rooted in la mission civilisatrice mission to civilize However since the 1980s Neo Pentecostalism is increasingly reshaping the Congolese Christendom It sanctions the theologies of a prosperity gospel rooted in an uncritical reading of the Bible and self theologizing informed by a lack of literal contextual translation effects This book argues that the prosperity gospel bankrupts its adherents in this case the vulnerable impoverished sections of Sub Saharan Africa and particularly the Postcolonial Congo and instead offers a balanced theological reflection that broadens Neo Pentecostal studies with an African voice encouraging the rewriting and rereading of the story of redemptive mission The research engages a paradigm shift within global missions and world Christianity or the history of missions as the platform to negotiate literal prophetic and contextual translation and retransmission of the biblical gospel It is critical to reclaim and reestablish a hermeneutic of mixed methodologies and construct a contextual and critical interpretation of the Bible in the Congo To avoid the African assumption of cultural baggage which affects how the Congolese interpret the Bible the interpreter has to be neutral and experience the voice of Christ in the text instead of the voice of Congolese culture they must be a prophetic voice to reconstruct the authentic meaning of the salvific story
