Mad Forest Script:

The Conscience of Humankind ,2021-11-22 The traumatic experiences of persecution and genocide have changed traditional views of literature The discussion of historical truth versus aesthetic autonomy takes an unexpected turn when confronted with the experiences of the victims of the Holocaust the Gulag Archipelago the Cultural Revolution Apartheid and other crimes against humanity The question is whether and if so to what extent literary imagination may depart from historical truth In general the first reactions to traumatic historical experiences are autobiographical statements written by witnesses of the events However the second and third generations the sons and daughters of the victims as well as of the victimizers tend to free themselves from this generic restriction and claim their own way of remembering the history of their parents and grandparents They explore their own limits of representation and feel free to use a variety of genres they turn to either realist or postmodernist ironic or grotesque modes of writing hunger for revolution The play has an austere eloquence that precisely matches its subject The Guardian Cloud Nine sheds light on some of the British Empire's repressed dark side and is a marvelous play sometimes scurrilous always observed with wicked accuracy and ultimately surprisingly rather moving It plunges straight to the heart of the endless convolutions of sexual mores and does so with acrobatic wit Guardian Owners I was in an old woman's flat when a young man offering her money to move came round that was one of the starting points of the play Caryl Churchill The plays in this volume represent the best of Churchill's writing up to and including her emergence onto the international theatre scene with Cloud Nine
