How To Write: A Screenplay Mark Evan Schwartz, 2007-04-15 There are hundreds of books on the market all trying to teach you how to write a screenplay Several of them are excellent and useful books But never until now has there been a screenwriting manual written in the form of a screenplay Our hero the aspiring screenwriter Danny is hopelessly in love with Bebe a hot young starlet But Bebe won't go out with Danny until he proves that he can write a brilliant screenplay for her Helped along the way by a mysterious guide Virgil with seemingly magical powers Danny travels to Screenwriting Hell to see what happens to writers who never make the grade Virgil teaches him the tricks of the trade the fundamental techniques that all screenwriters have to master no matter how great their ideas But there's something a little strange about Virgil and Danny is never sure whether to trust him or not As well as the screenplay itself the book includes an introduction explaining how to get the most out of the screenplay the log line the synopsis character bios the treatment and The Pitch a short scene that shows the author pitching his screenplay to a big shot producer

Writing the Character-Centered Screenplay, Updated and Expanded edition Andrew Horton, 2000-02-23 We need good screenwriters who understand character Everywhere Andrew Horton traveled in researching this book from Hollywood to Hungary he heard the same refrain Yet most of the standard how to books on screenwriting follow the film industry's earlier lead in focusing almost exclusively on plot and formulaic structures With this book Horton a film scholar and successful screenwriter provides the definitive work on the character based screenplay Exceptionally wide ranging covering American international mainstream and off Hollywood films as well as television the book offers creative strategies and essential practical information Horton begins by placing screenwriting in the context of the storytelling tradition arguing through literary and cultural analysis that all great stories revolve around a strong central character He then suggests specific techniques and concepts to help any writer whether new or experienced build more vivid characters and screenplays Centering his discussion around four film examples including Thelma Louise and The Silence of the Lambs and the television series Northern Exposure he takes the reader step by step through the screenwriting process starting with the development of multi dimensional characters and continuing through to rewrite Finally he includes a wealth of information about contests fellowships and film festivals Espousing a new character based approach to screenwriting this engaging insightful work will prove an essential guide to all of those involved in the writing and development of film scripts

Starting from Scratch Rita Mae Brown, 2011-05-04. From the best selling author of Rubyfruit, Jungle and Bingo, here is a writer's manual as provocative, frank and funny as her fiction. Unlike most writers' guides, this one has as much to do with how writers live as with mastering the tools of their trade. Rita Mae Brown begins with a very personal account of her own career, from her days as a young poet who had written a novel no publisher wanted to take a chance on, right up to her recent adventures as a Hollywood screenwriter. In a sassy style that makes her outspoken advice as entertaining as it is useful, she provides straight talk about paying the rent while maintaining the energy to write and dealing with agents, publishers, critics and the publicity circus about pursuing journalism, academia or screen writing and about rejecting the Hemingway myth of the hard living hard drinking genius In addition Brown a former teacher or writing offers a serious examination of the writer's tool language plotting characters symbolism plus exercises to sharpen the ear for dialogue and a fascinating annotated reading list of important works from the seventh century to the late twentieth

Screenplay Workbook Jeremy Robinson, Tom Mungovan, 2010-06-09 An instructional manual combined with proprietary worksheets charts and fill in lists designed to give screenwriters a better way to focus on the task of writing a screenplay
