

USING THE MINI BOOK

The mini-book template is super-easy to use! The cutting or pasting needed to create this template is minimal. Just lengthen (or shorten) the dimensions and then again in the other direction. (Note: Your students have to use a 4-page book mostly to be filled with great evidence of learning.)

The mini-book can be used as a book report, to show sequential steps in a process, to highlight a vocabulary word found on third page 2 - definition, page 3 the acronym, page 4 use the word in a sentence, to highlight a math word with an example, to summarize a book, and much more!

USING FRENCH DOOR FOLDABLES

Large French door foldables are not difficult to make and are a great way to organize information. Here is how:

1. Cut on all the solid lines.
2. Fold on all the dotted lines.
3. Close the back of the book, then fold and paste it into notebook or onto plain paper.
4. Label! Done with necessary information and corrections corresponding information before the door.

USING ACCORDION FOLDABLES

Accordion foldables are a student favorite! They're almost like making "folded stars" or "stars" to make one.

1. Cut on all the solid lines.
2. Fold in alternating directions on all the dotted lines.
3. Make another illustration the placement in notebooks or to display in the classroom.

Accordion foldables are the perfect way to show steps in a process, such as long division, organizing "how to" information, highlighting the main events of a novel, recording the number of a major road, and the list goes on!
