Childress, 2023-10-14 The multiple related fields encompassed by this Major Reference Work represent a convergence of issues and topics germane to the rapidly changing segments of knowledge and practice in educational communications and technology at all levels and around the globe There is no other comparable work that is designed not only to gather vital current and evolving information and understandings in these knowledge segments but also to be updated on a continuing basis in order to keep pace with the rapid changes taking place in the relevant fields The Handbook is composed of substantive 5 000 to 15 000 words peer reviewed entries that examine and explicate seminal facets of learning theory research and practice It provides a broad range of relevant topics including significant developments as well as innovative uses of technology that promote learning performance and instruction This work is aimed at researchers designers developers instructors and other professional practitioners WAEC in Review Benjamin Freeman

Jr., 2014-11-07 WAEC in Review is a practical intervention strategy in transforming the weakening educational system of Liberia where academic excellence is unceasingly diminishing LIPACE Pilot Study Guide is not only a landmark achievement in the educational history of Liberia but a remarkable stride towards the proper preparation of Liberian students for future diets of the WAEC exam As a member of the National Committee of the West African Examinations Council and a Stakeholder in the Liberian Education System I wish to recommend the use of this study guide to adequately prepare each and every Liberian student for future examinations thereby setting the stage for an easy transition to the emerging West African Senior Secondary Examinations WASSCE I am explicitly confident that you will definitely find your journey through this guide very rewarding as you prepare to sit the next WAEC Exam David S Massaquoi Sr director of Education The Salvation Army Liberia Command Education Secretariat Our students sit the exam in constant fear of proctors and supervisors They know nothing about the exam and its structure and this fear lead to them failing massively We need to build the confidence level of our students and help them to study hard and understand the roles of proctors and supervisors to stop the intimidation during the exam Thanks to LIPACE and the Turning the Tide project we have helped our students achieved an amazing achievement for the first time in the history of Gbarpolu County where all senior students successfully passed the exam Lartey Bemah principal of Bopolu Public School 2012 2013 Gbarpolu County Liberia Newswatch ,2008 Mass Failure in Public Examinations Ayorinde Dada,1987 Proceedings of the ... Annual Conference and ... Conference of CASTME Africa Science Teachers Association of Nigeria. Conference,2004 Vocationalisation of Secondary Education Revisited Jon Lauglo,R. Maclean,2006-03-30 The book is a cutting edge contribution to the debate which has occurred for some time on the pros and cons of secondary education becoming more closely and explicitly related to preparing young people for the world of work The book provides concrete examples of the vocationalisation of secondary education with particular reference to the situation in Africa The target audience for the book includes policy makers practitioners administrators education planners researchers teachers and teacher educators with a concern about the relationship between secondary education and education for the world of work with particular reference to technical and vocational education and training TVET The book appears in the Springer book series on Technical and Vocational Education and Training Issues Concerns and Prospects and compliments the International Handbook of Technical and Vocational Education and Training and other publications in the International Library of TVET all of which are publications of the UNESCO UNEVOC International Centre for TVET in Bonn Germany Daily Graphic Yaw Boadu-Ayebofoh,2005-10-07 The Lonely Ones Among Us Oluwale Komolafe,2016-11-11 The Lonely Ones Among Us describes the arduous and slippery paths of the selected few that journey to success from the base of the economic pyramid of life in Nigeria In this book the author draws similarities between the capillary action in a rising damp to the determination that propels the poor that rise from the base of the economic pyramid to success by dint of hard work Mr Enilari Olakitan Ekun a humble science teacher in a secondary school in Lagos is the main character in the book His life exemplifies the challenges faced by the few that swim against the tide to liberate themselves from the bondage at the base of the economic pyramid Other characters with similar attributes to Mr Ekun are identified in the book What they all have in common is that they refuse to follow the accepted way of life that the society considers to be the norm They are the aberrant that see the problems others overlook or pretend not to see Instead of following the crowd

they choose to follow the road of the lone wayfarer In summary the book shows that the old fashion way of hard work still pays off

Validating Technological Innovation David Coniam, Peter Falvey, 2016-04-02 This book discusses Hong Kong's use of onscreen marking OSM in public examinations Given that Hong Kong leads the way in OSM innovation this book has arisen from a recognised need to provide a comprehensive coherent account of the findings of various separate but linked validation studies of onscreen public examinations in Hong Kong The authors discuss their experience of the validation process demonstrating how high stakes innovation should be fully validated by a series of research studies in order to satisfy key stakeholders

Tradition, Modernity and Post-modernity in Comparative Education Vandra Masemann, Anthony Welch, 1998-01-31 This special double issue consists of a selection of papers presented at the Ninth World Congress of Comparative Education held at the University of Sydney Australia in July 1996 on the theme of Tradition Modernity and Post modernity in Comparative Education Before presenting the selection this introduction will first survey the changing discourse in comparative education over the past few decades and will argue that an unreframed and uncritical postmodernity holds no greater promise in comparative education than its uncritical modernist or tradition oriented rivals When Nicholas Hans 1949 cited Michael Sadler's early rationale for studying comparative education it was within the context of a work which sought to identify the traditions that underlay national educational systems This early work together with others such as that by Isaac Kandel 1930 was predicated on the assumption of the importance of national character of which education systems were an important component Indeed from this perspective the purpose of comparative education was not merely to analyse the forces and factors which produced differences among educational systems but implicitly at least also to discover the underlying principles which govern the development of all national systems of education Hans 1949 5 Hans was preeminently an historian of course as was Kandel to an extent and therefore saw comparative education first and foremost in this light
