Agreement: Parties to a dispute have resolved the problem harmoniously right through and is intended to be permanent. Disputes are harmonized by the authority right, the agreement is not. But if the parties have resolved the dispute, the authority will be different. It will be a collection of the two sides.

Individuals at risk of aggression and antisocial behaviour include African-Americans who favour the 'tough' street culture of the inner city, and who are more likely to be involved in violent crime. This is supported by the findings of the British Crime Survey, which found that African-American males are more likely to be involved in violent crime than white males. This is also reflected in the findings of the British Crime Survey, which found that African-American males are more likely to be involved in violent crime than white males. This is also reflected in the findings of the British Crime Survey, which found that African-American males are more likely to be involved in violent crime than white males.
