Everybody's Talkin' Barry Monush, 2009 The movies of the 1960s ran the gamut from glossy studio product to a less linear and less inhibited style of filmmaking. It was the decade during which censorship codes were demolished and the studio contract system fell apart. Every genre was strongly represented from domestic dramas to spectacles, musicals, soap operas and westerns. Some of the most diverse, daring, colourful, outrageous and enduring of all motion pictures were released from 1965 to 1969. Screen World editor Barry Monush tells the reader why his top selections stood out among the other releases of those five years. The text is accompanied by illustrations of movie ads, tie-in book covers, soundtrack albums, sheet music and other oddities. In addition, each film's entry includes a plot synopsis, the opening date, the studio and a creative staff and cast listing. From The Sound of Music to Alfie, In the Heat of the Night to The Lion in Winter, Bob Carol Ted Alice to Planet of the Apes, Easy Rider and Midnight Cowboy, here is a pop culture feast for film buffs and all fans of that interesting point in time that was the late 1960s.

Endless Summer Michael Frankel, 2007. In celebration of the approaching 21st century, the author joined the 46-foot ketch Hornblower II in a round-the-world rally. The British-sponsored Millennium Odyssey started in 1998 with a flame-lighting ceremony in the Old City of Jerusalem and ended on Easter Day 2000 at the Vatican. The rally organizer Jimmy Cornell presented Pope John Paul II a lantern with the flame carried around the world from the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. The author recounts his east-west voyage along the coconut milk run through the Panama Canal, across the Pacific Indian and South Atlantic oceans, then back to the Caribbean and Florida. Along the way, he reflects on the marine ecosystem, globalization and the history of exploration, starting with Marco Polo, Ibn Battuta, Zheng He, Magellan to Cook.

Hammond,2014-01-23 One has to marvel at the tremendous material progress of China under the New China concept The sweeping skyscrapers the architectural creations of the Olympics and space successes are a wonder to behold But there are other criteria by which a nation should be judged Shouldnt the spiritual and political advancement of the people also have equal importance If the people are kept in a gilded cage can that be good even though you fill their bellies and clothe them beautifully This book is dedicated to stripping away the glitzy exterior and taking a hard look at the sinister interior President Reagan used the blunt but realistic term Evil Empire which is closer to the truth In this case it is the evil dragon the Chinese Communist Party that towers above the law and the Chinese Constitution that is the terrible truth It has no limits and no purpose in life other than its survival regardless of human cost In its wake it destroys all human dignity of individual expression in exchange for material wealth It demands unthinking obedience for the material rewards But like all Chinese empires in its thousands of years history a day of retribution will come When is anyones guess but some factors that foretell its eventual demise is suggested in this book The London Route Memory Dete-Mawere,2012-08 The book is entirely a work of fiction The names characters and incidents portrayed in it are the work of the author s imagination and any resemblance to actual persons living or dead events or localities is entirely coincidental However readers will note that the incidents are composites of real situations faced by Zimbabwean immigrants living in the United Kingdom
