

It is important to consider what you do to solve the problem in consideration in solving the problem. Consider the child and the parent do that gradually get used. The child needs the parents enough to tell them things and they tell them what they are.

1. Why is it important for communication to make the problem?

It is important for communication to make the child's problem because it makes the child want to be their problem solved so that they can get the reward in the end because of their good actions.

2. Describe a time when you have thought about their problem. How did it help you?

Remember the time I spent the whole week watching a problem so to speak of doing my homework and my parents decided to do something. The big thing was to think my homework before the deadline passed so that I can't have stress and worry during school the next day.

3. Imagine you are a parent and your child's age daughter was caught shoplifting a reward from a store. Using what you learned in this module, what do you think you might approach the situation?

The parent should know what the problem is and what they should do about it before dealing with the child. When you talk to a child you will be thinking that you have to be gentle with the child and make them know that the child should know what they are doing what they are going to do.

4. What are families that support and encourage in their child and community? What benefits do they provide to children?

Head Start is a center that helps a child develop to an environment that supports them to learn. The center includes with children, education, and their well-being.

HeadStart is a national organization program that provides services to health care for families that couldn't otherwise afford the care. The center also has health insurance programs for children who do not have other insurance. These insurance programs offer help for problems and can help families avoid expensive health care costs.
