Caught in the Act Cyril Julie, Lorna Holtman, Charles R. Smith, 2019-12-11 The research reported in Caught in the Act draws together the insights gained from a continuous professional development initiative for high school mathematics teachers teaching in low socio economic status and socially challenged environments in South Africa The chapters show the possibilities for enhancing achievement in school mathematics if a strength based approach is adopted to develop teaching with teachers and when their concerns are taken seriously The book demonstrates that the ecological relevance fitness for the context in which teachers are teaching of the goods developed and distributed by initiatives should be a major consideration to offer hope for sustainable implementation to improve school mathematics education The book is of interest to mathematics teachers school leaders mathematics curriculum advisors policy makers and researchers Women in

Wildlife Science Carol L. Chambers, Kerry L. Nicholson, 2022-11 This practical guide an edited volume discusses the important topic of fostering diversity in wildlife conservation and management Monthly Labor Review ,2013 Publishes in depth articles on labor subjects current labor statistics information about current labor contracts and book reviews

Teaching and Learning Secondary School Mathematics Ann Kajander, Jennifer Holm, Egan J Chernoff, 2018-10-24 This volume brings together recent research and commentary in secondary school mathematics from a breadth of contemporary Canadian and International researchers and educators It is both representative of mathematics education generally as well as unique to the particular geography and culture of Canada The chapters address topics of broad applicability such as technology in learning mathematics recent interest in social justice contexts in the learning of mathematics as well as Indigenous education The voices of classroom practitioners the group ultimately responsible for implementing this new vision of mathematics teaching and learning are not forgotten Each section includes a chapter written by a classroom teacher making this volume unique in its approach We have much to learn from one another and this volume takes the stance that the development of a united vision supported by both research and professional dialog provides the first step The State of the System Paul W. Bennett, 2020-09-23 Over the last fifty years Canada s public schools have been absorbed into a modern education system that functions much like Max Weber s infamous iron cage Crying out for democratic school level reform the system is now a centralized bureaucratic fortress that every year becomes softer on standards for students less accessible to parents further out of touch with communities and surprisingly unresponsive to classroom teachers Exploring the nature of the Canadian education order in all its dimensions The State of the System explains how public schools came to be so bureaucratic confronts the critical issues facing kindergarten to grade 12 public schools in all ten provinces and addresses the need for systemic reform Going beyond a diagnosis of the stresses strains and ills present in the system Paul Bennett proposes a bold plan to re engineer schools on a more human scale as the first step in truly reforming public education In place of school consolidation and managerialism one size fits all uniformity limited school choice and the success for all curriculum Bennett advocates for a new set of priorities decentralize school governance deprogram education ministries and school districts listen to parents and teachers and revitalize local education democracy Tackling the thorny issues besetting contemporary school systems in Canada The State of the System issues a clarion call for more responsive engaged and accountable public schools
