Grade9 Memo 2014:

Encounters Old and New in World History Alan Karras, Laura J. Mitchell, 2017-06-30 This collection of essays asserts the specific value of world history research and teaching showing how the field contributes to the larger historical profession and offering concrete suggestions to develop more interaction between the academy and the public The twelve contributors each with their own academic areas of interest are experienced scholars and classroom teachers Uniting them together in this volume is their professional relationship with Jerry H Bentley 1949 2012 This shared connection served as a catalyst to showcase Bentley s enduring legacy a commitment to investigating large scale questions with detailed empirical evidence that explains the human condition documenting both patterns of similarity and difference in ways that account for regional and temporal variations The volume continues Bentley s meticulous attention to world historical methods focus on scale cross cultural encounter comparison periodization critical geography and interdisciplinarity Encounters Old and New in World History responds to provocations that Jerry Bentley tendered in his scholarship and through his professional activities Contributors interrogate the institutional settings disciplinary proclivities methodological choices and diverse source bases of world history research and teaching Several essays address the ways in which present day concerns influence research on local and global scales Other essays pay particular attention to the production and circulation of knowledge across regional temporal and class boundaries as well as between the academy and the wider public Claiming the centrality of globally informed and focused approaches to historical inquiry researchers continue the conversations that Bentley carried on through his own scholarship teaching editing of the Journal of World History participating in public forums and contributing to public discussions about the place of history in understanding today s global integration The stakes involved in asking questions about the shared history of humankind continue to increase in the current era of intensified globalization It is incumbent upon scholars with the skills to work across linguistic geographic temporal and disciplinary boundaries to show the ways that cross cultural encounters happened historically and to point out how such interactions play out in the institutions classrooms and public debates where historical interpretations are created and shared

Students With Interrupted Formal Education Brenda Custodio, Judith B. O'Loughlin, 2017-02-23 New hope for our most vulnerable English learners One of the guiding principles of effective English language teaching is for educators to know their students And that in a nutshell captures the value of this book The compassion that Custodio and O Loughlin feel for our SIFE students the commitment they have to educating them well and the comprehension they have of the assets these learners bring to the classroom are evident in the writing tools and vignettes they share Deborah J Short Under the best of circumstances the academic demands of today s classrooms can be daunting to our English learners But for the tens of thousands of newly arrived students with interrupted formal education even the social challenges can be outright overwhelming Rely on this all in one guide from Brenda Custodio and Judith O Loughlin for expert insight on how to build the skills these students need for success in school and beyond Inside you ll find Essential background on factors leading to interrupted education Specific focus on refugee children and Latino immigrants Guidance on building internal resilience for long term social and emotional health Recommendations for creating supportive environments at the classroom school and district level About one thing Brenda and Judith are absolutely convinced our SIFE students can learn and make progress often at a remarkable speed But it s up to us their educators to provide the time attention and a specific focus Consider this book your first step forward

The Leader's Guide to Working with Underperforming Teachers Sally J Zepeda, 2016-03-10 Under increasing pressure in the face of teacher evaluation systems and accountability measures schools must focus on those teachers that exhibit marginal to incompetent teaching behaviors in their classrooms

This book is a vital resource for educational leaders who are responsible for instructional programs and teacher evaluation. Zepeda's tried and true strategies will help you take the necessary steps to support and mentor struggling teachers by detecting underperformance, developing strategies to help teachers engaging in difficult conversations to enact plans of improvement, and following legal requirements. The practical tools found in this book will help teachers improve their instruction, assessment, classroom management, and teamwork.

Tax simplification - An African Perspective Edited by Chris Evans, Riël Franzsen, Elizabeth (Lilla) Stack 2019 Edited by Chris Evans, Riël Franzsen, Elizabeth (Lilla) Stack, 2019-01-01. Tax simplification: An African Perspective Edited by Chris Evans, Riël Franzsen, Elizabeth Lilla Stack 2019. ISBN 978 1 920538 96 5. Pages 347. Print version Available. Electronic version Free PDF available. About the publication: Why are tax systems so complex and what are the causes and consequences of such complexity? The simplification of tax systems is one of the most important issues faced today in worldwide efforts to modernise and strengthen government finance and revenue-raising capacities. Nowhere is it more important than throughout the rapidly emerging economies of the dynamic African region. This volume brings together contributions in this field from a conference held in South Africa in October 2018 and provides a unique synthesis of knowledge and understanding gained from the specialist expertise and diverse backgrounds brought to the tax simplification debate by those authors. Featured topics include: Taxpayers' rights to simplicity; The African experience of tax simplification; Simplification trends among small and medium-sized entities; Pension tax simplification; Sources of complexity in value-added taxation; Simplification of recurrent property taxes; Complexity and approaches to international taxation; Complexity and taxation of multinational enterprises; Lessons from overseas. The analysis of these topics includes timely and relevant perspectives from the experience in other jurisdictions including Australia, Canada, New Zealand, the United Kingdom, and the United States. The volume will be an essential reference for researchers and others interested in the field from academia.
