

Autobiography

My name is Michael Smith and I was born on the 30th of August, 1967 in Long Beach, California. My parents were Eddie Smith and Joan Smith. Both of my parents are deceased. My mom died at the age of 57 in 1994 from lung cancer which was the result of smoking her whole lifetime. My father died at the age of 69 in 2006 from a massive heart attack, which was also the likely result from a lifetime of smoking. Fortunately I have been smart enough to avoid that bad habit.

My early childhood was a typical middle class environment circa the 1960's. My dad worked for Simpson Buick as a parts salesman and my mom was a stay at home mother. I had a happy, normal childhood as an only child, leaving me somewhat spoiled. My mom and dad divorced when I was eight years old and both remarried within a year or so of the divorce. My dad remained married to my stepmom Bev until his death. My mom would marry two more times. My first stepdad Vince became a big part of my life and I maintained close contact with him until his death in 2006, two days after my real dad died. Yes, that was a very bad week, losing both of my dads.

Growing up with split parents was not especially difficult since each of my parents kept me out of their divorce and they got along fine at events where both of them were present. I lived with my mom until I was 16 and in high school. By my sophomore year in high school I had begun to hang around with friends that got me into a lot of trouble with a number of things including smoking pot and drinking. I was rapidly heading down a negative path, but was fortunate enough to notice it before I had done any serious damage. I moved in with my dad and changed high schools and friends.

Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04 First published in 2001 This is the first substantial reference work in English on the various forms that constitute life writing As this term suggests the Encyclopedia explores not only autobiography and biography proper but also letters diaries memoirs family histories case histories and other ways in which individual lives have been recorded and structured It includes entries on genres and subgenres national and regional traditions from around the world and important autobiographical writers as well as articles on related areas such as oral history anthropology testimonies and the representation of life stories in non verbal art forms College Writing and Beyond Anne Beaufort, 2008-02-06 Composition research consistently demonstrates that the social context of writing determines the majority of conventions any writer must observe Still most universities organize the required first year composition course as if there were an intuitive set of general writing skills usable across academic and work world settings In College Writing and Beyond A New Framework for University Writing Instruction Anne Beaufort reports on a longitudinal study comparing one student's experience in FYC in history in engineering and in his post college writing Her data illuminate the struggle of college students to transfer what they learn about general writing from one context to another Her findings suggest ultimately not that we must abolish FYC but that we must go beyond even genre theory in reconceiving it Accordingly Beaufort would argue that the FYC course should abandon its hope to teach a sort of general academic discourse and instead should systematically teach strategies of responding to contextual elements that impinge on the writing situation Her data urge attention to issues of learning transfer and to developmentally sound linkages in writing instruction within and across disciplines Beaufort advocates special attention to discourse community theory for its power to help students perceive and understand the context of writing Writing the Radical Memoir Paul Williams, Shelley Davidow, 2023-05-18 For those that have mastered the basics of memoir and wish to probe this brand of creative nonfiction further Writing the Radical Memoir uses salient theories about memory and the self to challenge assumptions about how we remember and tell the truth of our lives when we write about it Innovative in approach and making new critical ideas accessible each chapter maps out the key principles of such writers as Barthes Lacan Derrida Lewis Mehl Madrona Philippe Le Jeune and Joseph Campbell invokes literary examples to show how other writers have mastered the idea before reflecting on how you can practically apply the theory to your writing With original exercises and prompts for further reading that bridge the gap between the theoretical and how it might be put into practice the book is attentive to the multiple facets of the genre of nonfiction writing generally covering such topics as The writer reader contract How to embark on a thematic symbolic exploration of themes and incidents in your life How neuro scientific theory can inform our understanding of memory and recall and what happens to our memories when we remember them Character development and the ethics of writing about real people How constructing your identity in memoir offers a chance to push back against traditional structures That memoir might not be preservation of your past but a process of self erasure How J M Coetzee's Autobiography trilogy challenges traditional biography By bringing together lived experience post structuralist and postmodernist theories praxis and artistic vision as a unique approach to writing memoir this book encourages you to think the self how it is portrayed created erased and made strange through the process of writing and remembering

Relational Responses to Trauma in Twenty-First-Century French and Spanish Women's Writing Hannie Lawlor, 2024-09-05 Relational Responses to Trauma in Twenty First Century French and Spanish Women's Writing offers new insight into what it means to write relational lives It broadens the parameters of existing discussions in terms of geography

as well as genre drawing together two literatures whose prominence in life writing theory to date could hardly be more different while French women's writing has long been at the centre of international discussions of autobiography the relative invisibility of Spanish women's writing remains striking The dialogue that thus underpins this study between diverse twenty first century case studies and broader approaches to life writing shines a light on what is gained from inviting different voices into the discussion These narrative projects challenge longstanding critical assumptions in autobiography studies and trauma theory about how writers can and should represent the multiple perspectives that are at the heart of intergenerational stories In exploring the narrative solutions that these texts propose in response to the ethical questions they navigate this book shows that writing relational lives rests on far more than the mere recounting of a shared history Relating in these texts it proposes is an act embedded in the telling of the story It is a mode of testifying together to traumatic experience one that reveals a powerful preoccupation in contemporary women's life writing practice with making more audible the many voices and versions that go unheard

Experiments in Life-Writing Lucia Boldrini, Julia

Novak, 2017-10-24 This volume examines innovative intersections of life writing and experimental fiction in the 20th and 21st centuries bringing together scholars and practicing biographers from several disciplines Modern Languages English and Comparative Literature Creative Writing It covers a broad range of biographical autobiographical and hybrid practices in a variety of national literatures among them many recent works texts that test the ground between fact and fiction that are marked by impressionist self reflexive and intermedial methods by their recourse to myth folklore poetry or drama as they tell a historical character's story Between them the essays shed light on the broad range of auto biographical experimentation in modern Europe and will appeal to readers with an interest in the history and politics of form in life writing in the ways in which departures from traditional generic paradigms are intricately linked with specific views of subjectivity with questions of personal communal and national identity The Introduction of this book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license via link springer.com

The Therapeutic Potential of Creative Writing Gillie Bolton, 1999 Writing is a means of making sense of experience and of arriving at a deeper understanding of the self The use of creative writing therapeutically can complement verbal discussions and offers a cost and time effective way of extending support to depressed or psychologically distressed patients Suitable both for health care professionals who wish to implement therapeutic writing with their patients and for those wishing to start writing creatively in order to help themselves The Therapeutic Potential of Creative Writing provides practical well tried and tested suggestions for beginning to write and for developing writing further It includes ideas for writing individually and for directing groups and explores journal writing poetry fiction autobiography and writing out trauma with established writers and those who have taken up writing for private enjoyment

Autobiographical Writing and Identity in EFL Education Shizhou Yang, 2013-09-11 The book explores the pedagogical potential of autobiographical writing in English as a foreign language approaching the topic from an educational longitudinal dialogical and social perspective Through a number of case studies the author delineates four phases that EFL writers may experience in their identity construction processes illustrating the complexity of EFL writers social identities This book will provide a valuable resource for language teachers and researchers interested in the pedagogical applications of autobiographical writing Writing Feminist Lives Malin Lidström Brock,2017-05-05 This book draws attention to the controversy that surrounds Betty Friedan Germaine Greer Gloria Steinem and Simone de Beauvoir s lives and the important role that their life stories have played in their feminist writing Directly and indirectly the four women have contributed to battles over feminism s meaning through autobiographically informed political writing Inevitably therefore their biographers are also participants in these battles yet not always on the same side as their subjects Writing Feminist Lives introduces a further fold of nuance into considerations of biography and feminism by showing that the biographers of the four women have made methodological choices that reflect their loyalty to or their scepticism towards competing ideological definitions of the exemplary feminist life Axelrod & Cooper's Concise Guide to Writing Rise B. Axelrod,Charles Raymond Cooper,2006 Provides six guided writing assignments along with readings and strategies for writing and research all in a brief flexible easy to use format Essays on Life Writing Marlene Kadar,1992-01-01 Marlene Kadar has brought together an interdisciplinary and comparative collection of critical and theoretical essays by diverse Canadian scholars Critical Theory and The English Teacher Nick Peim,2002-03-11 In this radical exploration Nick Peim himself a practising English teacher shows how teachers can use critical theory to bring students own experience back into the subject The author explains how the insights of discourse theory psychoanalysis semiotics and deconstruction can be used on the material of modern culture as well as on and in oral work The book is written in a style which even those with no background in critical theory will find approachable and arguments are backed up with practical classroom examples Postcolonial Life-Writing Bart Moore-Gilbert,2009-06-08 At a time when concepts of identity and self representation are abundant in both literary and cultural studies Postcolonialism and Life Writing brings together the two increasingly popular and important fields of postcolonial studies and life writing Reader's Guide to Lesbian and Gay Studies Timothy Murphy,2013-10-18 The Reader s Guide to Lesbian and Gay Studies surveys the field in some 470 entries on individuals Adrienne Rich arts and cultural studies Dance ethics religion and philosophical issues Monastic Traditions historical figures periods and ideas Germany between the World Wars language literature and communication British Drama law and politics Child Custody medicine and biological sciences Health and Illness and psychology social sciences and education Kinsey Report The Extraordinary Work of Ordinary Writing Jennifer Sinor,2002-11-13 Krutch s trenchant observations about life prospering in the hostile environment of Arizona s Sonoran Desert turn to weighty questions about humanity and the precariousness of our existence putting lie to Western denials of mind in the lower forms of life Let us not say that this animal or even this plant has become adapted to desert conditions Let us say rather that they have all shown courage and ingenuity in making the best of the world as they found it And let us remember that if to use such terms in connection with them is a fallacy then it can only be somewhat less a fallacy to use the same terms in connection with ourselves
