

5. Observing class members shared a classroom during conference and participants received the book and their reflections were incorporated in the design/development of the curriculum. Thus, the initial, ongoing consultation process of this project, which began a month before the conference, clearly was a critical component of the process. Participants have been asked to describe the degree of difficulty meeting participants' needs (see appendix B).

5. Subscribers' great expectations contribute very differently. Subscribers' perceptions about customers' great expectations, how those expectations change over time, and the consequences of unmet great expectations, are all critical components. One may expect that, if great expectations contribute to a smaller perceived relative improvement in customer service, all else considered, all else constant, those who experienced the better children's services that have implemented the new engagement (sample group, B) are less likely to experience dissatisfaction. And yet surprisingly different suggestions of dissatisfaction exist in the two groups.

8. Journal Quarterly (Chicago) is a literary-religious journal that, "drawing to the forefront of the scene," the literary and religious life of the nation and the world, publishes and publishes important religious writing. The authorship is by its contributors, the most accomplished.
