

WELCOME ABOARD!!!

A Little of Our History

McKenzie Foods was established in its original structure in 1965 by Jim Price, Anne McKenzie Goodnight's father. The first 2 restaurants were built in the late 1960s, early 1970s in Lafayette, IN on Elmwood Avenue and Teal Road. Sadly, Jim Price passed away unexpectedly in 1972 while cooking chicken in the Teal Rd. kitchen. He would certainly be proud to know that what he started nearly 50 years ago is still going strong today!

In the early 1980s Anne took over full ownership and operational responsibilities of McKenzie Foods. She started this phase of her life after she had raised her 3 children – Jennifer and twin boys, John and Jim. Anne was up for the challenge and the KFC business thrived under her leadership! A 3rd restaurant was added on SR26 near Interstate 65.

The 1990s brought a great deal of activity for McKenzie Foods! The SR26 restaurant was relocated to its current location – a new restaurant with much more dining and kitchen space was built there by Jim McKenzie. The restaurant on SR26 continues to be our highest volume location at nearly $1.8 million in annual sales.

In 1991 McKenzie Foods added its fourth restaurant. The location was across the Wabash River in West Lafayette, IN. The new restaurant was built after an existing Dairy Queen building was demolished. Jim and Anne worked together again to build this restaurant.

In the mid-1990s the SR26 and West Lafayette restaurants added Buffets to their menu. This required extensive remodeling at both locations but added the opportunity for significant sales growth. Neither location disappointed as sales levels grew significantly in years to follow.

Anne continued to manage the 4 locations in the greater Lafayette area – Market Square, Teal Rd., SR 26 and West Lafayette – into the 2000s. Anne was not only a leader of the KFC restaurants, but was also involved in the Lafayette community and Purdue University. An immense amount of goodwill toward KFC was created by Anne and her commitment to the community. McKenzie Foods still realizes the impact of Anne's leadership in the community today.

In 2008 Jim McKenzie became more involved with McKenzie Foods. While Jim had built 2 of the restaurants, he had never been involved in the day to day operation of the business. Jim and Anne developed a plan that eventually would lead to Jim taking over as McKenzie Foods president. McKenzie Foods also built a new store during this time on the fast-growing south side of Lafayette. As this new store was opened, the original KFC restaurant location at Market Square would close. Much of the Lafayette market had grown away from Market Square, and the south side location on Veterans Parkway (350 South) offered much more promise. The new restaurant location would offer a Buffet and seat close to 100 customers – a definite upgrade!

With Jim taking over as President, a plan was slowly put in place to grow McKenzie Foods to locations outside Lafayette.
