Dear teacher,
we are bidding
you farewell but we and our hearts will never say goodbye to the wonderful things you've taught us.

Engaging All Families Steven M. Constantino, 2003-10-22 Families are a child's first and best teachers A significant amount of research exists that strongly links the engagement of families in the educational lives of their children as a strong foundation to the successful achievement of all students Educators cannot expect total engagement and high standards from students if both families and schools cannot form powerful alliances to guide those students to academic and lifelong success Putting research into practice remains one of the most significant barriers to engaging families with schools School leaders already stretched thin struggle to carve out the time and energy necessary to pour through research and create programs to promote family engagement within their school and community As principal of a large comprehensive and diverse high school Constantino solves this dilemma by providing a step by step process for practitioners to create family engagement programs at all levels Engaging All Families provides a summary of research that acts as a foundation upon which the practitioner's tools are crafted Readers are given the resources necessary to assess their present level of family engagement and the ideas strategies suggestions programs practices policies and procedures to implement a wide variety of customized family engagement programs Numerous resources and references are also included As a successful school administrator and nationally known expert in the field of family and community engagement Steven Constantino builds the bridge from research to practice with Engaging All Families and provides the information that allows all schools to become family friendly

Engage Every Family Steven M. Constantino, 2020-08-27 New and Improved Revisit Five Simple Principles and Engage With Every Family Why haven't we been more successful in engaging every family in the educational lives of their children Why do we still struggle with the notion of engaging every family as a conduit to improved student learning This book outlines a pathway and process to engage every family including those families that have been traditionally disengaged or disenfranchised Updates to this second edition include updated research to ensure a firmer foundation for each of its five simple principles as well as Reflections about implicit bias equitable learning outcomes and the role family engagement plays A deeper dive into the idea of family efficacy or empowering families to work alongside teachers for improved learning A nuanced switch from building to developing relationships and how trust is at the core of that subtle difference Join Dr Steve Constantino as he shares what he has learned and how he has improved the Five Simple Principles for family engagement and its powerful effects upon student achievement
