Collaborative and Distributed Processes in Contemporary Music-Making Richard Glover, Lauren Redhead, 2020-04-09 This volume represents the second proceedings of the Royal Musical Association's RMA Music and as Process Study Group It is not surprising that a large number of the contributors to the Music and as Process Study Group are active practitioners in the performance and composition of contemporary music The collaborations documented here represent the bringing together of disciplines joint work between practitioners who contribute their own specific areas of expertise to a composite creative activity and work that crosses disciplines in order to make a critical comment in each of them In this collection these three types of collaborative work describe an increasing amount of contemporary music practice In addition to the increasing involvement of practice in research the understanding and prevalence of practice methodologies in the form of practice research has also increased in musicology This volume reflects these concerns through contributions from authors who are all active practitioners in their respective fields of music performance composition improvisation and conducting The diversity of these contributions shows the variety of processes and practices that are currently being undertaken by proponents of the field of contemporary music

These essays provide a snapshot of the current collaborative and distributed processes that are employed by today's contemporary music practitioners. The chapters contained in this volume reveal the varied nature of the approaches to creativity in music making and the ways that these are distributed across its practitioners during each stage of the development of musical works.

Advances in Design and Digital Communication V Nuno Martins, Daniel Brandão, 2024-12-23 This book reports on research findings and practical lessons featuring advances in the areas of digital and interaction design, graphic design and branding design, education, society and communication in design practice and related ones. Gathering the proceedings of the 8th International Conference on Digital Design and Communication Digicom 2024 held on November 7-9, 2024, as a hybrid event in Barcelos, Portugal, this book continues the tradition of the previous ones, reporting on new design strategies to foster digital communication within and between the society, institutions and brands. By highlighting innovative ideas and reporting on multidisciplinary projects, it offers a source of inspiration for designers of all kinds, including graphic and web designers, UI/UX and social media designers, and to researchers, advertisers, artists and brand and corporate communication managers alike.
