LES CHANTS DES LENDEMAINS Louis-Clément RENAULT, Monte Bianco Stefano Ardito, 2024-02-02T00:00:00+01:00 Il Monte Bianco uno dei monumenti naturali pi belli d Italia e del mondo I suoi ghiacciai e le sue vette le sue pareti di granito e le sue creste di neve dove s incontrano Italia Francia e Svizzera formano paesaggi di straordinario fascino il simbolo dell alpinismo La prima ascensione ai 4810 metri della cima stata compiuta nel 1786 da Jacques Balmat e Michel Gabriel Paccard Da allora uomini e donne d avventura come Edward Whymper e Albert Frederick Mummery Giusto Gervasutti e Walter Bonatti Christophe Profit Catherine Destivelle e tanti altri hanno compiuto imprese straordinarie Ma anche un crocevia della nostra storia perch ai suoi piedi sono passati soldati mercanti e pellegrini e i suoi ghiacciai e le sue rocce hanno affascinato viaggiatori artisti e scienziati Stefano Ardito racconta le speranze e i trionfi di centinaia di alpinisti che hanno esplorato le vette e le pareti del massiccio Non mancano le tragedie che hanno segnato il Monte Bianco dall Ottocento ai nostri giorni Nulla restituisce la poesia di questa vetta come le parole scritte da Walter Bonatti nel 1961 Al tramonto il vento del Nord disperde la tempesta come d incanto Il Monte Bianco illuminato dagli ultimi raggi del sole riappare come un grande cono di cristallo lucente pi bello pi severo quasi trasparente nel vento siderale che fa fumare le sue creste

The Light-Green Society Michael Bess, 2003-11-15 The accelerating interpenetration of nature and culture is the hallmark of the new light green social order that has emerged in postwar France argues Michael Bess in this penetrating new history On one hand a preoccupation with natural qualities and equilibrium has increasingly infused France s economic and cultural life On the other human activities have laid an ever more potent and pervasive touch on the environment whether through the intrusion of agriculture industry and urban growth or through the much subtler and more well intentioned efforts of ecological management The Light Green Society limns sharply these trends over the last fifty years The rise of environmentalism in the 1960s stemmed from a fervent desire to save wild nature nature conceived as a qualitatively distinct domain wholly separate from human designs and endeavors And yet Bess shows after forty years of environmentalist agitation much of it remarkably successful in achieving its aims the old conception of nature as a separate sphere has become largely untenable In the light green society where ecology and technological modernity continually flow together a new hybrid vision of intermingled nature culture has increasingly taken its place

Divided Natures Kerry H Whiteside, 2002-02-01 In this book Kerry Whiteside introduces the work of a range of French ecological theorists to an English speaking audience He shows how thinkers in France and in English speaking countries have produced different strains of ecological thought and suggests that the work of French ecological theorists could lessen pervasive tensions in Anglophone ecology Much of the theory written in English is shaped by the debate between anthropocentric ecologists who contend that the value of our nonhuman surroundings derives from their role in fulfilling human interests and ecocentric ecologists who contend that the nonhuman world holds ultimate value in and of itself This debate is almost nonexistent among French theorists who tend to focus on the processes linking nature and human identity Whiteside suggests that the insights of French theorists could help English language theorists to extricate themselves from endless debates over the real center of nature's value Among the French theorists discussed are Denis de Rougemont Denis Duclos Ren Dumont Luc Ferry Andr Gorz Félix Guattari Bruno Latour Alain Lipietz Edgar Morin Serge Moscovici and Michel Serres The English language theorists discussed include John Barry Robyn Eckersley Robert Goodin Tim Hayward Holmes Rolston III and Paul Taylor

True Summit David Roberts, 2002-02-05 In a startling look at the classic Annapurna the most famous book about mountaineering David Roberts discloses what really happened on the legendary expedition to the Himalayan peak In June 1950 a team of mountaineers was the first to conquer an 8 000 meter peak Maurice Herzog the leader of the expedition became a national hero in France and Annapurna his account of the historic ascent has long been regarded as the ultimate tale of courage and cooperation under the harshest of conditions In True Summit David Roberts presents a fascinating revision of this classic tale Using newly available documents and information gleaned from a rare interview with Herzog the only climber on the team still living Roberts shows that the expedition was torn by dissent As he re creates the actual events Roberts lays bare Herzog's self serving determination and bestows long delayed credit to the most accomplished and unsung heroes These new revelations will inspire young adventurers and change forever the way we think about this victory in the mountains and the climbers who achieved it

Desert Imaginations Brahim El Guabli, 2025-11-04 Desert Imaginations traces the cultural and intellectual histories that have informed the prevalent ideas of deserts across the globe The book argues that Saharanism a globalizing imaginary that perceives desert spaces as empty exploitable and dangerous has been at the center of all desert focused enterprises Encompassing spiritual practices military thinking sexual fantasies experiential quests extractive economies and experimental schemes among other projects Saharanism has shaped the way deserts not only are constructed intellectually but are acted upon From nuclear testing to border walls and much more

Brahim El Guabli articulates some of Saharanism's consequential manifestations across different deserts. Desert Imaginations draws on the abundant historical literature and cultural output in multiple languages and across disciplines to delineate the parameters of Saharanism. Against Saharanism's powerful and reductive vision of deserts, the book rehabilitates a tradition of desert eco-care that has been at work in desert Indigenous people's literary, artistic, scholarly, and ritualistic practices.
