Being Smart about Gifted Education Dona J. Matthews, Joanne F. Foster, 2009 The book presents practical strategies to identify and nurture exceptionally high ability in children These authors promote the mastery rather than the mystery model of gifted education and challenge several common practices and assumptions

Classroom Assessment Lorin W. Anderson, 2003-02-26 This book is based on the belief that decision making is perhaps the most critical of all teaching skills and that good assessments lie at the core of good decision making To become better teachers then teachers must learn to make informed decisions about both individual students learning decisions and about groups of students teaching decisions This book gives equal status to both types of decisions and shows how assessment is integral to both The organization of the book is sequential mirroring the way in which information should be used to make decisions It begins with a conceptual framework linking information to decision making then moves to the design of assessment instruments and the collection of assessment information then to the interpretation of assessment information and finally to reporting the results of both the assessment and the decision making process There is an emphasis throughout on linking why teachers assess with what and how they assess Other key features include Practical Framework The book s framework corresponds to the framework that teachers use to grade their students conduct classroom behavior effort student motivation and achievement student learning Unique Chapters There are separate chapters on interpreting assessment information prior to decision making and on reporting assessment information to parents teachers and administrators Flexibility Because of its modest length and price and its practical focus on the links between assessment and everyday teacher decision making this text can be used either in full length assessment courses for teachers or to teach the assessment units in educational psychology or integrated methods courses and structure or the lack there of Student-Led Assessment Starr Sackstein,2024-01-03 The single greatest authority on student learning is the student doing the learning but the right structures must be in place for students voices to be clearly heard and truly valued Conventional formative and summative assessment are most often conducted through one size fits all quizzes and tests that yield narrow predetermined categories of data about students academic progress But if we want a truly accurate look at what how and to what extent students are learning who better to consult than the obvious experts on the matter the students themselves In this lively and comprehensive guide veteran teacher and author Starr Sackstein provides the tools needed to help students compile and present evidence of learning through portfolios and student led conferences from templates and rubrics to personal testimonials reflection questions and activities The book features Forms applicable across grade levels and content areas for unpacking standards co constructing success criteria with students evaluating current classroom practices and more Real life perspectives and scenarios from educators in the field who have embraced portfolios and student led conferences over standardized tests and letter grades Practical experience based guidance for building classroom and schoolwide learning cultures that promote both learner agency and academic achievement The resources recommendations and reflections in Student Led Assessment allow educators at all levels to develop systems and protocols for ensuring student ownership of and pride in their own hard won achievement Train Your Brain, Transform Your Life , The 3 Things Maggie Boxey,2024-06-18 Through Maggie s drunken youth she was reminded by her preacher father of The 3 Things you are part of a family be true to yourself and glorify God in all that you do But as Maggie shares in this transformational book those old truths take on new meaning in modern life recovery and motherhood Sometimes simplicity can untangle the most complicated messes Even in the darkest pit with the cold hard slab of rock bottom pressed against our face there is a lifeline of truth a rope of wisdom we can grab to pull ourselves out As Maggie Boxey curled into a tight ball of overwhelming shame addiction and isolation she could hear her preacher father s voice echoing in her ears You are part of a family Be true to yourself Glorify God in all that you do These were the three things Maggie s Daddy would insist she repeat as a teenager before running out the door for sleepovers that were really trips to the darkest corners of town to binge drink with strangers Each night she would rattle off the 3 things before wandering off to pull herself further into the complicated mess it would take decades to untangle It took her 25 hard traumatic years for her to fully grasp the depth of her father s words through her time serving in the Navy through addiction and through losing custody of her child due to her behavior and instability The deeper Maggie sunk into addiction and isolation the less she felt part of a family Without community to see herself reflected back to her it felt impossible for her to be true to herself Instead of glorifying God in all she did she resorted to foxhole prayers and felt unworthy of God s love She lived in the undoing of the 3 things until she found herself in an alcoholic suicidal bottom with only two ways to go end it all or surrender to a new beginning She chose the latter With the 3 things as her guide Maggie gathered powerful forces to aid her in her recovery contemplation community celebration and compassion for herself and others She relied on her 12 step recovery community to help her get sober and put in the humble work to right the wrongs of her past She became part of a family again both chosen and inherited Her compassionate honesty allowed her to be true to herself And she remembered what it means to glorify God in all she did whether that was taking out the trash giving birth to her second child or writing a book in service to others The 3 Things In The 3 Things Maggie Boxey shares how she used her faith to regain all she lost and find the will to start again even when it seemed hopeless She shares her struggles of being a sober progressive liberal and gasp vegetarian living in military communities in the South And as a die hard Indigo Girls fan she guides readers from all walks of life and religious backgrounds to get closer to fine
