Activities Done

Personal Development involves holistic advancement of various attributes of an individual. There are several components involved in this that ensure the holistic developments. This helps in the achievement of social, emotional and mental maturity (DeCenzo & Silhanek, 2002, p. 144). In order to enhance the holistic development of a person, there are certain activities that can be undertaken towards the promotion of efficient development. These activities should be done continuously to ensure progressive growth of the individual. On the other hand, a lot of expertise should also be involved in order to develop the desirable characteristics that will result into object and autonomous life decisions. Several organizations have adopted training programs in an attempt to enhance individuals' performance. These programs are believed to enhance mental development. However, they also involve various components that enhance the holistic development of the people undergoing training (DeCenzo & Silhanek, 2002, p. 149).

At the places of work, training programs have been widely used because they are designed to enhance professional development professional advancement in various fields. If certain skills are lacking, the program will be tailored to cover the gap that is experienced. As a result of this, effectiveness and efficiency can be achieved in the organization. The training programs will help in the achievement of various short term goals. Initially, the achievement of certain professional expertise is the desire of most professionals. This will be attained through the training programs in the required areas. In the same way, organizations always have the desire for increasing the quality of the production and also competitively positioned in the primary theme of this collection of essays is that the cities basic problems are poverty and racism and until these concerns are addressed by bringing about racial equality creating jobs and instituting other reforms the generally low quality of urban life will persist Gans argues that the individual must work to alter society He believes that not only must parents have jobs to improve their children s school performance but that the country needs a modernized New Deal a more labor intensive economy and a thirty two hour work week to achieve full employment Other controversial ideas presented in this book include Gans s opposition to the whole notion of an underclass which he feels is the latest way for the nonpoor to unjustly label the poor as undeserving He also believes that poverty continues to plague society because it is often useful to the nonpoor He is critical of architecture that aims above all to be aesthetic or to make philosophical statements is doubtful that planners can or should try to reform our social or personal lives and thinks we should concentrate on achieving individual public policies until we learn how to properly plan as a society The Charismatic Leader Dale L. Brubaker,2005-07-08
