Meaning-Fullness Jan Resnick,2023-02-02 With a Foreword by Nancy McWilliams The purpose of Meaning Fullness Developmental Psychotherapy and the Pursuit of Mental Health is to show why current mental health practices are falling short in the ever growing need for effective responses to the epidemic of mental unwellness Jan Resnick begins by taking a critical look at psychiatry and psychology especially the misuse and corruption of research that undergirds these practices He goes on to offer an alternative perspective understanding and approach to issues of mental disorders Resnik focuses upon the existential vacuum a term originating in Viktor Frankl's classic text Man's Search for Meaning which refers to feelings of emptiness purposelessness and meaninglessness Feelings that are increasingly prevalent in our contemporary world The existential vacuum points to a domain of experience not well described by the DSM or treated with a bio medical approach A radically different therapeutic approach emerges through elaborating Winnicott s ideas in Playing and Reality his last published work Resnick shows how the capacity for meaning making originates in early childhood development and how this understanding can be applied to adult experience thereby making psychotherapy a developmental process Developmental psychotherapy aims to cultivate a greater capacity for play creativity relationship and meaningful living In addition therapy must work toward relief of mental suffering recovery from trauma and mitigation if not resolution of psychological disorders The theory is richly supported with clinical examples throughout the book culminating in a long case study that integrates the ideas with clinical practice which forms the final part of the book Dr Jan Resnick has created a must read work for mental health practitioners the world over His easy to read prose makes it accessible and of value to anyone concerned with issues of mental health and well being personal development and creating a meaning full way of living Popular Photography - ND
