Raising Frankie Brenda B. Moody,2022-03-09 As a college student he was blessed to become a student intern in the Information Technology IT department where he continued to increase his computer skills as a part time computer lab assistant and a computer troubleshooter These roles pushed his skilled to a brand new level After the internship was over I followed my instructor everywhere he went so I could learn everything I could I even stayed after hours to glean from his knowledge His instructor told him that he had never met anyone like him before Someone who was hungry for knowledge After graduating with a degree in computer science he was offered a part time job in the IT department That job later became full time As a contributing co author to Raising Frankie he visited his parents twice a week to proofread and suggest any changes he felt were necessary They wanted to make sure he was comfortable with every line before it went to publication Since he has embraced the book the three of us hope readers will share its content to assist anyone they know who is or have dealt with ADHD Brenda is a retired educator who lives with her husband in North Carolina During her academic career she served in several capacities in the educational arena These positions included teaching academically gifted to disadvantaged and handicapped students in high school high school assistant principal and supervisor director of Career Technical Education Programs She has also taught on the community college level In her community she serves on several church auxiliaries to include serving as a deaconess member of the senior usher board and as a Sunday school teacher Because of her experiences working with attention deficit hyperactive disorder ADHD via students and their teachers she wanted to share her knowledge and experiences with others through Raising Frankie She hopes that loving and living this work will positively impact the lives of others as it has the Moody family Frankie L Moody Sr Moody coauthor is a United States Army Veteran and a retired lieutenant with the North Carolina State Highway Patrol Presently he is actively serving as a church deacon president of the male ushers Security Team member Cub Scout Den Leader and as a literacy tutor for adults with Triangle South Literacy Works He also is employed part time to transport people to and from medical appointments In his years of working with people Moody often imparted words of wisdom and encouragement whenever the opportunity presented itself Brenda and Moody worked passionately together to first of all understand the characteristics of ADHD Secondly to embrace Frankie s diagnosis so they could help him to deal with whatever he may have encountered academically as well as socially during his formative years Toward that end Moody spent his days off each week serving as a teacher assistant s when Frankie was in elementary school He also chaperoned every field trip and assisted with all of his sport activities During high school we worked together as a team to support Frankie as needed to include how to handle unwarranted bullying During high school and college we realized that Frankie needed space to make his own decisions With that said we were always available and ready to activate whatever actions as were necessary to help Frankie to be successful without encroaching on his I can do it on my own abilities

Wisconsin's Framework for Comprehensive School Health Programs Bonnie Nelson Trudell,1998 Advancing Educational Equity for Students of Mexican Descent Andrea Romero,Iliana Reyes,2022-04-24 Drawing on participatory action research conducted with students parents families and school staff in a Southwest community in the United States this volume contests the interpretation of the achievement gap for students of Mexican descent in the American education system and highlights asset based approaches that can facilitate students academic success By presenting the Asset Based Bicultural Continuum Model ABC and demonstrating the applications in a variety of family school and community based initiatives this volume demonstrates how community and cultural wealth can be harnessed to increase educational opportunities for Latino students The ABC model offers new strategies which capitalize on the bicultural and linguistic assets rooted in local communities and offers place based strategies driven by communities themselves in order to be tailored to students strengths The text makes a significant contribution to understanding the social ecology of Latinx students experiences and offers a new direction for effective and evidence based academic and health programs across the United States This book will be a valuable resource for researchers and academics with an interest in the sociology of education multicultural education urban education and bilingual education It will be of particular interest to those with a focus on Hispanic and Latino studies Creating Caring and Nurturing Educational Environments for African American Children Vivian Morris,Curtis Morris,2000-01-30 The history of the education of African American children in one Alabama town is reconstructed over a period of 100 years from the First Reconstruction period to the Second Reconstruction period Governor George Wallace s stand in the schoolhouse door Lessons learned from this case study in addition to 15 years of desegregated education in the community provides a perspective for educational policymakers to consider as they attempt to plan effective schools in the 21st century for all children in America Many have viewed segregated schools for African American students as dens of educational pathology with poor teachers and administrators poorly operated academic programs and activities dilapidated school buildings and scarce resources Until the last two decades little had been written about the internal functioning of these schools or the positive impact of their efforts from the perspective of their students families teachers or administrators Despite being underfunded understaffed and issued second hand books and equipment this school and community worked together as did many other African American schools and communities to create effective schooling for children This study addresses four major questions 1 What kinds of educational experiences did teachers and principals view as important for the successful education of African American children 2 How did the school interact with parents and the community 3 How did the educational environment change when African American children began attending desegregated schools 4 What can we learn from this successful school for African American children as well as their experiences in the desegregated setting that will provide a perspective for educational policymakers as we plan effective schools for all children in this country The findings from this case study present a perspective on which educational policymakers can build as we plan caring nurturing and equitable learning environments for children in schools in all communities Resources in Education ,2001-10 The Kindergarten-primary Magazine ,1911 The Literacy Specialist Rita M. Bean,Virginia J. Goatley,2020-11-16 Revised edition of The reading specialist c2015 Kindergarten Primary Magazine ,1914 Promising Practices for Family Involvement in Schools Diana Hiatt-Michael,2001-11-01 This volume will address major frameworks for understanding family involvement and government support of family involvement projects in the initial chapters The following six chapters present a theoretical base for understanding school family and community partnerships and research supporting promising practices Included within each chapter are examples of research in action focusing on specific interactive activities or programs designed to bring families and schools together Such promising practices are organized into chapters dealing with two way home school communication family literacy projects school site parent centers parent school collaborative governance and family school education programs spanning infancy through young adulthood The monograph concludes with a chapter on teacher preparation for work with family school and community partnership issues Besides their research expertise each author brings a unique background as classroom teacher parent and community social advocate to their writing Individually most of us have spent our early professional years within the classroom acquiring the value of connecting home with school for the benefit of the children As parents and grandparents we have advocated for parental interests within the school As community advocates we strive for collaborative communication across groups who serve children and their families We invite you to share our passion for working with families and community groups within our schools
