Rabinowitz,Sandra E. Whitten,2019-05-21 Guided Cognition for Learning Unsupervised Learning and the Design of Effective Homework details a new instructional design approach called Guided Cognition where homework tasks are designed to guide learners to engage in specific observable cognitive events that are hypothesized to elicit underlying theoretical cognitive processes that result in learning Outlining the results of twenty six experiments completed over the course of eight years the book tells a significant story about the generality of Guided Cognition instructional design to improve comprehension and recall by students of varying ages and ability levels Explains why unsupervised learning is a major part of education Reviews the history of homework in American education Shows that quality of homework is more important than quantity Illustrates how Guided Cognition designed homework improves learning for literature and mathematics Compares Guided Cognition to other types of instructional design Analyzes how the surface structure of Guided Cognition tasks relate to underlying psychological processes Discusses the effects of the internet on learning Presents applications that facilitate lifelong learning Includes an appendix of frames and guidelines for authoring Guided Cognition questions and tasks Lobbying, direct Strickland,2005 This third book in the Differentiation in Practice series presents annotated lesson plans to illustrate how real teachers incorporate differentiation principles and strategies throughout an entire instructional unit The Quality of Literature Willie van Peer, 2008-03-19 Evaluation is central to literary studies and has led to an impressive list of publications on the status and history of the canon Yet it is remarkable how little attention has been given to the role of textual properties in evaluative processes Most of the chapters in The Quality of Literature redress this issue by dealing with texts or genres ranging from classical antiquity via Renaissance to twentieth century They provide a rich textual and historical panorama of how critical debate over literary quality has influenced our modes of thinking and feeling about literature and how they continue to shape the current literary landscape Four theoretical chapters reflect on the general state of literary evaluation while the introduction weaves the different threads together aiming at further conceptual clarification This book thus contributes to a deeper understanding of the problems that are at the heart of past and present debates over literary quality Digest of Proceedings of the Railway Signal Association Railway Signal Association, 1906

Library Bulletin Fitchburg Public Library, 1900 The Internet in School Duncan Grey, 2001-06-01 Written in a non threatening and nontechnical style this guide examines both the pitfalls and the opportunities of Internet use in schools The author discusses techniques for use in the classroom such as exercises and activities in the core subjects valuable curriculum links obstacles encountered such as the variable content of Web sites what is needed in order to get connected the use of intranets how to publish information on the net Hearings Before the House Select Committee on Lobbying Activities United States. Congress. House. Select Committee on Lobbying Activities, 1950 Spiritual and Religious Education Mal Leicester, Sohan Modgil, 2005-07-15 Volume V distinguishes religious and spiritual education and takes a multi faith approach to pedagogic curricular and resource issues The important area of collective worship is also addressed Digest of Proceedings ...
