Usable Social Science Neil J. Smelser, John Shepard Reed, 2012-10-15 Usable Social Science represents a remarkable collaboration between Neil J Smelser one of America s most distinguished sociologists and John Reed a highly successful member of corporate America Together they accomplish an even more remarkable feat of making accumulated social science knowledge accessible to non academics while at the same time making an academic contribution to the social sciences by reviewing the history accumulated findings and conceptual approaches in key areas of specialization in sociology and elsewhere in the social sciences Jonathan H Turner University Professor Distinguished Professor of Sociology University of California Riverside This book is an ambitious project to provide the public with a review of the available and practicable knowledge for decision making people and who is not that today that the social sciences have produced over the last 250 years or so Typically such efforts are bound to fail But this project is a full success keeping its promise to present knowledge in an understandable and exciting way The language is charming and the elegant prose is the product of a fluent transparent style In short a must read Hans Peter Mueller Professor of sociology Humboldt University of Berlin

Geographic Adjustment in Medicare Payment Institute of Medicine, Board on Health Care Services, Committee on Geographic Adjustment Factors in Medicare Payment, 2012-04-23 Medicare is the largest health insurer in the United States providing coverage for 39 million people aged 65 and older and 8 million people with disabilities and reaching more than an estimated 500 billion in payments in 2010 Although Medicare is a national program it adjusts fee for service payments according to the geographic location of a practice While there is widespread agreement about the importance of providing accurate payments to providers there is disagreement about how best to adjust payment based on geographic location At the request of Congress and the Department of Health and Human Services HHS the Institute of Medicine IOM examined ways to improve the accuracy of data sources and methods used for making the geographic adjustments to payments The IOM recommends an integrated approach that includes moving to a single source of wage and benefits data changing to one set of payment areas and expanding the range of occupations included in the index calculations The first of two reports Geographic Adjustment in Medicare Payment Phase I Improving Accuracy assesses existing practices in regards to accuracy criteria consistency evidence for adjustment sound rationale transparency and separate policy adjustments to reform the current payment system Adopting the recommendations outlined in this report will mean a change in the way that the indexes are calculated and will require a combination of legislative rule making and administrative actions as well as a period of public comment Geographic Adjustment in Medicare Payment will inform the work of government agencies such as HHS the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services congressional members and staff the health care industry national professional organizations and state medical and nursing societies and Medicare advocacy groups
