Lyrical Nationalism in Post-Apartheid Namibia Wendi A. Haugh,2014-06-25 When Namibia gained its independence from South Africa in 1990 the new government began dismantling the divisive apartheid state and building a unified nation state What does this new nation look like from the perspective of ordinary citizens In Lyrical Nationalism in Post Apartheid Namibia Wendi Haugh provides an ethnographic portrayal of the nation as imagined by people living in the former ethnic homeland of Ovamboland with a particular focus on the lyrics of songs composed and performed by Catholic youth The author argues that these youth draw on conflicting ideologies hierarchical and egalitarian nationalist and cosmopolitan from multiple sources to construct a multi faceted sense of national identity She reveals how their vision of the nation framed as neutrally national is deeply rooted in specific local histories and cultures National Conference on Population Policy Considerations for Namibia ,1995 Curricula, Examinations, and Assessment in Secondary Education in Sub-Saharan

Africa World Bank,2008-02-15 Economic and social changes fast evolution of technology and the growing importance of Internet services and international communications all these require secondary education providers to adapt what is taught and learned in schools However in Africa the content of secondary curricula is in most cases ill adapted to 21st century challenges where young people are mobile have access to more and instant information and face health threats such as HIV AIDS In addition implementation problems exist and the time for instruction is often much less then what is required by the prescribed secondary curriculum In Africa there is a need to develop a secondary education curriculum adapted to the local economic and social environment but with international comparable performance indicators This study analyzes that challenge the quality of curricula and assessment and their development processes in secondary education in Africa against the background of existing contexts conditions and ambitions on the one hand and current pedagogical thinking on the other This World Bank Working Paper was prepared as part of the Secondary Education and Training in Africa SEIA initiative which aims to assist countries to develop sustainable strategies for expansion and quality improvements in secondary education and training
