Psychedelic Immortality: Nietzschean Perspectives on Reincarnation, Femtheogens, and Philosophy Joseph I. Breidenstein Jr., 2025-09-02 Recent research has revealed a psychedelic inspiration for Nietzsche's philosophy and far from being a novelty in the history of philosophy there is significant evidence that several of the first western philosophers ingested psychedelics as well In his first book Joseph I Breidenstein Jr PhD maintained that western philosophy began as what we today would call a feminist religious reformation in the sense that many prominent presocratic philosophers were reviving a paleo neolithic goddess centered religiosity of rebirth within the largely patriarchal and death glorifying culture of archaic Greece And in this book Dr Breidenstein Jr proposes that the presocratics psychedelic reincarnationist feminine model of education and or worldview is better suited for democracy in the twenty first century than the economic model of education that takes the west's mainstream materialistic secular worldview for granted For several decades now researchers have acknowledged both that the empirical evidence for reincarnation is overwhelming and that psychedelics can evoke past life recollections but explanations for either reincarnation or how psychedelics do this have yet to be offered By combining Nietzsche's philosophy with the work of other thinkers Psychedelic Immortality both provides explanations for each of these phenomena and explores how situating education and democracy within the context of reincarnation can incite a renaissance of American culture and politics For Nietzscheans and philosophers in particular this book illustrates the contemporary relevance of two neglected aspects of Nietzsche scholarship i e psychedelics and reincarnation and for researchers in such fields as feminist philosophy of religion ecotheology philosophy of education social political philosophy and eastern philosophy it offers a more plausible and healthier worldview in which to explore possibilities in their respective fields that are diminished by the mainstream paradigm For spiritual seekers of all paths it offers a conception of philosophy as a practice of awakening goddess consciousness that unfolds over the course of successive lifetimes

The Monstrosity of Christ Slavoj Žižek, John Milbank, 2011-02-25 A militant Marxist atheist and a Radical Orthodox Christian theologian square off on everything from the meaning of theology and Christ to the war machine of corporate mafia What matters is not so much that Žižek is endorsing a demythologized disenchanted Christianity without transcendence as that he is offering in the end despite what he sometimes claims a heterodox version of Christian belief John Milbank To put it even more bluntly my claim is that it is Milbank who is effectively guilty of heterodoxy ultimately of a regression to paganism in my atheism I am more Christian than Milbank Slavoj Žižek In this corner philosopher Slavoj Žižek a militant atheist who represents the critical materialist stance against religion's illusions in the other corner Radical Orthodox theologian John Milbank an influential and provocative thinker who argues that theology is the only foundation upon which knowledge politics and ethics can stand In The Monstrosity of Christ Žižek and Milbank go head to head for three rounds employing an impressive arsenal of moves to advance their positions and press their respective advantages By the closing bell they have not only proven themselves worthy adversaries they have shown that faith and reason are not simply and intractably opposed Žižek has long been interested in the emancipatory potential offered by Christian theology And Milbank seeing global capitalism as the new century's greatest ethical challenge has pushed his own ontology in more political and materialist directions Their debate in The Monstrosity of Christ concerns the future of religion secularity and political hope in light of a monstrous event God becoming human For the first time since Žižek's turn toward theology we have a true debate between an atheist and a theologian about the very meaning of theology Christ the Church the Holy Ghost Universality and the foundations of logic The result goes far beyond the popularized atheist theist point counterpoint of recent books by Christopher Hitchens Richard Dawkins and others Žižek begins and Milbank answers countering dialectics with paradox The debate centers on the nature of and relation between paradox and parallax between analogy and dialectics between transcendent glory and liberation Slavoj Žižek is a philosopher and cultural critic He has published over thirty books including Looking Awry The Puppet and the Dwarf and The Parallax View these three published by the MIT Press John Milbank is an influential Christian theologian and the author of Theology and Social Theory Beyond Secular Reason and other books Creston Davis who conceived of this encounter studied under both Žižek and Milbank

The Cambridge World History: Volume 7, Production, Destruction and Connection, 1750-Present, Part 2, Shared Transformations? J. R. McNeill, Kenneth Pomeranz, 2015-04-16 Since 1750 the world has become ever more connected with processes of production and destruction no longer limited by land or water based modes of transport and communication Volume 7 of the Cambridge World History series divided into two books offers a variety of angles of vision on the increasingly interconnected history of humankind The second book questions the extent to which the transformations of the modern world have been shared focusing on social developments such as urbanization migration and changes in family and sexuality cultural connections through religion science music and sport ligaments of globalization including rubber drugs and the automobile and moments of particular importance from the Atlantic Revolutions to 1989
