organizations CSOs in building confidence and peace and shows that Taiwanese CSOs hold a very complicated position which has in fact added to tensions Waisov s research looks closely at the roles civil society organizations play in conflict transformation reconciliation and peacebuilding the modalities of playing such roles and the challenges facing them It will be of interest to students and scholars researching cross strait relations and also to conflict resolution think tanks policy makers and policy analysts

Vocal Projections Maria Pramaggiore,Annabelle Honess Roe,2018-10-18 Vocal Projections Voices in Documentary examines a previously neglected topic in the field of documentary studies the political aesthetic and affective functions that voices assume On topics ranging from the celebrity voice over to ventriloquism from rockumentary screams to feminist vocal politics these essays demonstrate myriad ways in which voices make documentary meaning beyond their expository evidentiary and authenticating functions The international range of contributors offers an innovative approach to the issues relating to voices in documentary While taking account of the existing paradigm in documentary studies pioneered by Bill Nichols in which voice is equated with political rhetoric and subjective representation the contributors move into new territory addressing current and emerging research in voice sound music and posthumanist studies

Against New Materialisms Benjamin Boysen,Jesper Lundsryd Rasmussen,2023-06-15 The first comprehensive scrutiny of the theories associated with new materialisms including speculative realism new materialism Object oriented ontology and actor network theory One of the most influential trends in the humanities and social sciences in the last decades new materialisms embody a critique of modernity and a pledge to regain immediate reality by focusing on the materiality of the world human and nonhuman rather than a post structuralist focus upon texts Against New Materialisms examines the theoretical and practical problems connected with discarding modernity and the human subject from a number of interdisciplinary angles ontology and phenomenology to political theory mythology and ecology With contributions from international scholars including Markus Gabriel Andrew Cole and Dipesh Chakrabarty the essays here challenge the capacity of new materialisms to provide solutions to current international crises whilst also calling into question what the desire for such theories can tell us about the global situation today

Swahili Muslim Publics and Postcolonial Experience Kai Kresse,2018-12-17 Swahili Muslim Publics and Postcolonial Experience is an exploration of the ideas and public discussions that have shaped and defined the experience of Kenyan coastal Muslims Focusing on Kenyan postcolonial history Kai Kresse isolates the ideas that coastal Muslims have used to separate themselves from their upcountry Christian countrymen Kresse looks back to key moments and key texts pamphlets newspapers lectures speeches radio discussions as a way to map out the postcolonial experience and how it is negotiated in the coastal Muslim community On one level this is a historical ethnography of how and why the content of public discussion matters so much to communities at particular points in time Kresse shows how intellectual practices can lead to a regional understanding of the world and society On another level this ethnography of the postcolonial experience also reveals dimensions of intellectual practice in religious communities and thus provides an alternative model that offers a non Western way to understand regional conceptual frameworks and intellectual practice      Black Aliveness, or A Poetics of Being Kevin Quashie,2021-02-05 In Black Aliveness or A Poetics of Being Kevin Quashie imagines a Black world in which one encounters Black being as it is rather than only as it exists in the shadow of anti Black violence As such he makes a case for Black aliveness even in the face of the persistence of death in Black life and Black study Centrally Quashie theorizes aliveness through the aesthetics of poetry reading poetic inhabitation in Black feminist literary texts by Lucille Clifton Audre Lorde June Jordan Toni Morrison and Evie Shockley among others showing how their philosophical and creative thinking constitutes worldmaking This worldmaking conceptualizes Blackness as capacious relational beyond the normative terms of recognition Blackness as a condition of oneness Reading for poetic aliveness then becomes a means of exploring Black being rather than nonbeing and animates the ethical question how to be In this way Quashie offers a Black feminist philosophy of being which is nothing less than a philosophy of the becoming of the Black world      The SAGE

Ethics of (In-)Attention in Contemporary Anglophone Narrative Jean-Michel Ganteau,Susana Onega,2024-09-12 This volume argues that contemporary narratives evince a great deal of resilience by promoting an ecology of attention based on poetic options that develop an ethics of the particularist type The contributors draw on critical and theoretical literature hailing from various fields including psychology and sociology but more prominently phenomenology political philosophy analytical philosophy essentially Ordinary Language Philosophy alongside the Ethics of Care and Vulnerability This volume is designed as an innovative contribution to the nascent field of the study of attention in literary criticism an area that is full of potential Its scope is wide as it embraces a great deal of the Anglophone world with Britain Ireland the USA but also Australia and even Malta Its chapters focus on well established authors like Kazuo Ishiguro whose work is revisited here in a completely new light or more confidential ones like Melissa Harrison or Sarah Moss Chapter 2 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Russian Style Julie A. Cassiday, 2023-12-19 In the two decades after the turn of the millennium Vladimir Putin's control over Russian politics and society grew at a steady pace As the West liberalized its stance on sexuality and gender Putin's Russia moved in the opposite direction remolding the performance of Russian citizenship according to a neoconservative agenda characterized by increasingly exaggerated gender roles By connecting gendered and sexualized citizenship to developments in Russian popular culture Julie A. Cassiday argues that heteronormativity and homophobia became a kind of politicized style under Putin's leadership However while the multiple modes of gender performativity generated in Russian popular culture between 2000 and 2010 supported Putin's neoconservative agenda they also helped citizens resist and protest the state's mandate of heteronormativity Examining everything from memes to the Eurovision Song Contest and self-help literature Cassiday untangles the discourse of gender to argue that drag or travesti became the performative trope par excellence in Putin's Russia Provocatively Cassiday further argues that the exaggerated expressions of gender demanded by Putin's regime are best understood as a form of cisgender drag This smart and lively study provides critical nuanced analysis of the relationship between popular culture and politics in Russia during Putin's first two decades in power

Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Multilingualism Simona Montanari, Suzanne Quay, 2019-10-08 Multilingualism is a typical aspect of everyday life for most of the world's population it has existed since the beginning of humanity and among individuals of all backgrounds Nonetheless it has often been treated as a variant of bilingualism or as a phenomenon unique to individual areas of study The purpose of this book is to review current knowledge about the acquisition use and loss of multiple languages using a multidisciplinary perspective highlighting the common themes and stimulating insights that can emerge when multilingualism is viewed from different but related areas of investigation The chapters focus on research evidence showing that multilingualism is a complex phenomenon that involves a myriad of linguistic and extra-linguistic forces and that should be studied in its own right as evidence of human potential and capacity for language The book is primarily addressed to students and scholars interested in deepening their understanding of the different facets of multilingualism including the individual and societal circumstances that contribute to it the cognitive and neural mechanisms that make it possible and the dynamics involved in the acquisition use and loss of multiple languages

Decentralization and Constitutionalism in Africa Charles M. Fombad, Nico Steytler, 2019-09-10

This collection of essays assesses the efforts of African governments to constitutionalise decentralisation be it in the form of federalism local government or traditional authorities Since the end of the Cold War jurisdictions across Africa have witnessed an ostensible return to multi party democracy within the paradigm of constitutionalism and the rule of law Linked to the democratisation process many countries took steps to decentralize power by departing from the heavily centralized systems inherited from colonial regimes The centralization of power typically characterized by the personalization and concentration of power in the hands of leaders and privileged elites in capital cities mostly resulted in repressive regimes and fragile states As decentralisation is a response to these challenges this volume analyses the dynamic relationship between the efforts to implement decentralization and presence or absence of constitutionalism This volume examines a variety of forms and degrees of decentralization found across Africa It advances a new understanding of trends and patterns and facilitates the exchange of ideas among African governments and scholars about the critical role that decentralisation may play in democratization of and constitutionalism in Africa This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence It is free to read on the Oxford Academic platform and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations
