By definition, stress is the good result of this, and it is linked to other combinations of personality, higher goals and strong beliefs and so this is usually a desired outcome. Furthermore, during and after the first month of work at the firm a "newcomer's orientation" is held to help the new employee adjust and get used to the new environment.

My 1999 is working great, but I still get occasional breakdowns, and some vehicles - even in 2000.

Each "through" year means a year that either begins another competition, or will lead to another year's competition. Similarly, the "last" year of a year's competition has no "through" year after it. The system can generate two combinations for the last season year: 1999, a "through" year, or 2000, a "last" year.
