Manual De Access 2013:

EHealth2014 - Health Informatics Meets EHealth A. Hörbst, D. Hayn, G. Schreier, 2014-06-03 It is generally accepted that information and communication technology has the potential to support high quality high tech medicine but up to now healthcare has lagged behind other sectors such as service industries in the implementation of such technology Medicine is now beginning to catch up however and the Austrian government recently agreed on the nationwide implementation of an Electronic Health Record Elektronische Gesundheitsakte ELGA _x000D_ This book presents the proceedings of the 8th scientific eHealth conference which is being held in Vienna Austria in the context of the eHealth Summit Austria in April 2014 The theme of the conference is Outcomes Research The Benefit of Health IT addressing the challenges which will inevitably accompany the new opportunities offered by the increased use of ICT in healthcare The history of technologies making the transition from the laboratory into practice is one of mixed success It is vital to understand what makes such an implementation a positive one and factors such as the needs fears and context of potential users are as important as a sound technical implementation Priorities may need to be rethought and new dimensions added _x000D_ The book will be of interest to all those considering the effect of new technologies and eHealth on the provision of healthcare systems and seeking to achieve services which are both technically and organizationally sound and which will also efficiently deliver noticeable benefits for users Gestión de datos de investigación Couto Corrêa, Fabiano, 2017-03-20 Access 2013□□□□□□□□

□□ □□□□, 2013-02-25 Women Redefining the Experience of Food Insecurity Janet Page-Reeves, 2014-07-03 Women Redefining the Experience of Food Insecurity Life Off the Edge of the Table is about understanding the relationship between food insecurity and women s agency The contributors explore both the structural constraints that limit what and how much people eat and the myriad ways that women creatively and strategically re structure their own fields of action in relation to food demonstrating that the nature of food insecurity is multi dimensional The chapters portray how women develop strategies to make it possible to have food in the cupboard and on the table to be able to feed their families Exploring these themes this book offers a lens for thinking about the food system that incorporates women as agentive actors and links women s everyday food related activities with ideas about food justice food sovereignty and food citizenship Taken together the chapters provide a unique perspective on how we can think broadly about the issue of food insecurity in relation to gender culture inequality poverty and health disparity By problematizing the mundane world of how women procure and prepare food in a context of scarcity this book reveals dynamics relationships and experiences that would otherwise go unremarked Normally under the radar these processes are embedded in power relations that demand analysis and demonstrate strategic individual action that requires recognition All of the chapters provide a counter to caricatured notions that the choices women make are irresponsible or ignorant or that the lives of women from low income low wealth communities are predicated on impotence and weakness Yet the authors do not romanticize women as uniformly resilient or consistently heroic Instead they explore the contradictions inherent in the ways that marginalized seemingly powerless women ignore resist embrace and challenge hegemonic patriarchal systems through their relationship with food
