illness into something monstrous can have dangerous consequences Marlene Goldman seeks to identify the political and social influences that have led to the gothic disease model and its effects on society Examining the works of authors such as Alice Munro Michael Ignatieff Jane Rule and Caroline Adderson alongside news stories and medical and historical discussions of Alzheimer's disease Goldman provides an alternative person centred perspective to the experiences of aging and age related dementia Deconstructing the myths that have transformed cognitive decline into a corrosive fantasy Forgotten establishes the pivotal role that fictional and non fictional narratives play in cultural interpretations of disease

Educating the Top 100 Percent Stephen G. Katsinas, Nathaniel J. Bray, Martha J. Kanter, 2022-08-23 Educating the Top 100 Percent assesses the decline of higher education funding and offers ambitious policy recommendations to restore the possibility of accessible affordable education for all Stephen G Katsinas Nathaniel J Bray and Martha J Kanter probe the complex interplay of federal state and local policies and illustrate how government actions have over time contributed to the long term slide of US educational attainment Declining federal and state funding of public higher education has forced institutions to revise their financial models passing costs directly through to students to the detriment of prospective students and the nation Experts in education policy the authors point out how the unintended consequences of today's funding model deny an ever increasing portion of the population important educational and professional opportunities By providing context for how we arrived at this financial conundrum and analyzing robust quantitative data from national sources Katsinas and his colleagues offer pragmatic sustainable and stable policy options for educating all Americans The authors provide innovative ideas key lessons learned and actionable proposals to fund public higher education Their top down federal and bottom up local and state policy solutions aim to rectify plummeting high school to college continuation and college graduation rates As a result they present a vision of a brighter economic cultural and civic future for educating all Americans Educating the Top 100 Percent demonstrates how stable sustainable funding policies can scaffold a better public higher education system for all Mastering Primary History Karin Doull, Christopher Russell, Alison Hales, 2019-02-21

Mastering Primary History introduces the primary history curriculum and helps trainees and teachers learn how to plan and teach inspiring lessons that make learning history irresistible Topics covered include Current developments in history History as an irresistible activity History as a practical activity Skills to develop in history Promoting curiosity Assessing children in history Practical issues This guide includes examples of children's work case studies readings to reflect upon and reflective questions that all help to show students and teachers what is considered to be best and most innovative practice and how they can use that knowledge in their own teaching to the greatest effect The book draws on the experience of three leading professionals in primary history Karin Doull Christopher Russell and Alison Hales to provide the essential guide to teaching history for all trainee primary teachers School Libraries in a Time of Change Kathleen W. Craver, 2019-08-01 By becoming practical futurists school librarians can help their libraries not only to survive sweeping changes in education but to thrive This book shows how to spot technological trends and use them to your library s advantage During this time of rapid modernization of technology and educational reform this book is a must read for school librarians tasked with ensuring their libraries meet evolving standards This title provides the research and organizational techniques and skills they need to gain seats at the table of the three power committees technology curricula and strategic planning School librarians need to collect and publicize national and local school based evidence that shows the positive correlations between school librarians and student achievement Craver notes correlative sources and provides ideas to employ them to ensure that school librarians remain indispensable In addition acquiring technological skills and becoming expert at their application are paramount for librarians Even more important is the need for librarians to assume sole responsibility for designing and integrating information literacy and critical thinking skills throughout the curriculum Craver analyzes studies that show students inability to discern fact from fiction ads from news and information bias in electronic information sources and recommends six actions that school librarians take to ensure that they become active participants in their future rather than its victims
