Raised on Old-Time Country Cooking Bettye B. Burkhalter, 2012-10-26 Sixteen generations later the same old winding roads and blazed trails throughout the three novels lead us all back home to nostalgic dishes and the worlds from which they came Upon arrival at the old home place we quickly find our favorite room Mamas kitchen The familiar sounds of pots and pans and aromas of old time country cooking float in and out of our senses Suddenly visions of chocolate pies swirled high with meringues cooling on the kitchen window sill are as clear as yesterday The sizzling sounds of Mama frying chicken on the old wood stove remind us that her kitchen offered southern hospitality at its best The trip down memory lane of days gone by rekindles the true meaning of Home Sweet Home As we stop and reminisce hot tears blur our vision and we ask ourselves where did all the years go

Memories from Home Linda Weiss, 2007-04 The recipes in this book are from my mother grandmothers family and friends as well as those used in my cooking classes and television programs In this cookbook I am also printing the recipes kept secret until now that I have used in my personal chef and baking business The book title Memories From Home is the result of something my dad said to me when an article that I had written about my grandmother appeared on an entire page in my hometown paper He said you sure brought back a lot of good memories for me And I knew that was it it had to be Memories From Home Thanks Daddy I love you Since I have been writing for some years now I've included stories about my childhood and stories of growing up in the place that I love the most the south There is no place like it on earth And if you were lucky enough to be born here or live here now you will understand what I mean It is a world of gracious living and wonderful kind people Enjoy my friends
