Flaubert in Egypt Gustave Flaubert,1972      Flaubert in Egypt Francis Steegmuller,1972      Flaubert in Egypt Gustave Flaubert,1996      Flaubert in Egypt Gustave Flaubert,1979      Flaubert in Egypt : a Sensibility on Tour Gustave Flaubert,1996      Flaubert in Egypt Gustave Flaubert,1972      Spectacles of Realism Margaret Cohen,Christopher Prendergast,1995      Sex Work in Colonial Egypt Francesca Biancani,2018-07-30 In the early 20th century Cairo was a vibrant and booming global metropolis The integration of Egypt into the global market had led to rapid urban growth and increased migration As occupational prospects for women outside the family were limited sex work became a prominent feature of the new modern city However the economic and social changes in Egypt ignited national anxieties about racial degeneration social disorder and imperial decadence Francesca Biancani argues here that this was a period of national crisis that became inscribed on the bodies on female sex workers Based on a wide range of rare primary sources including documents from court cases reformist papers police minutes and letters Biancani examines the discourses around sex workers and shows how prostitution was understood in colonial Egypt The book argues that from initially regulating and managing prostitution local and colonial elites began to depict sex workers as a threat to the physical and moral welfare of the rising Egyptian nation However far from being a marginal activity prostitution is shown to play a central role in the history of Egyptian nation making By exploring the interdependence of power and marginality respectability and transgression Biancani writes sex work and its practitioners back into the history of modern Egypt The book is an original contribution to the global history of prostitution and a vital resource for scholars of Middle East Studies      Making Cairo Medieval Nezar AlSayyad,Irene A. Bierman,Nasser Rabbat,2005-03-25 During the nineteenth century Cairo witnessed once of its most dramatic periods of transformation Well on its way to becoming a modern and cosmopolitan city by the end of the century a medieval Cairo had somehow come into being While many Europeans in the nineteenth century viewed Cairo as a fundamentally dual city physically and psychically split between East West and modern medieval the contributors to the provocative collection demonstrate that in fact this process of inscription was the result of restoration practices museology and tourism initiated by colonial occupiers The first edited volume to address nineteenth century Cairo both in terms of its history and the perception of its achievements this book will be an essential text for courses in architectural and art history dealing with the Islamic world      All The Pasha's Men:Mehmed Ali,Hisarmy And The Making Of Modern Egypt Khaled Fahmy,2002 Basing his work on previously neglected archival material the author demonstrates how Mehmed Ali sought to develop the Egyptian economy and armies not as a means of gaining independence but to further his hereditary rule over Egypt      The Gift of the Nile Phiroze Vasunia,2001-12-04 The Egyptians mesmerized the ancient Greeks for scores of years The Greek literature and art of the classical period are especially thick with representations of Egypt and Egyptians Yet despite numerous firsthand contacts with Egypt Greek writers constructed their own Egypt one that differed in significant ways from actual Egyptian history society and culture Informed by recent work on orientalism and colonialism this book unravels the significance of these misrepresentations of Egypt in the Greek cultural imagination in the fifth and fourth centuries B C E Looking in particular at issues of identity otherness and cultural anxiety Phiroze Vasunia shows how Greek authors constructed an image of Egypt that reflected their own attitudes and prejudices about Greece itself He focuses his discussion on Aeschylus Suppliants Book 2 of Herodotus Euripides Helen Plato s Phaedrus Timaeus and Critias and Isocrates Busiris Reconstructing the history of the bias that informed these writings Vasunia shows that Egypt in these works was shaped in relation to Greek institutions values and ideas on such subjects as gender and sexuality death writing and political and ethnic identity This study traces the tendentiousness of Greek representations by introducing comparative Egyptian material thus interrogating the Greek texts and authors from a cross cultural perspective A final chapter also considers the invasion of Egypt by Alexander the Great and shows how he exploited and revised the discursive tradition in his conquest of the country Firmly and knowledgeably rooted in classical studies and the ancient sources this study takes a broad look at the issue of cross cultural exchange in antiquity by framing it within the perspective of contemporary cultural studies In addition this provocative and original work shows how Greek writers made possible literary Europe s most persistent and adaptable obsession the barbarian

Glocal Bodies Elaheh Hatami,2022-10-07 This book is a critical study of Iranian dance and the works of Iranian American female dancers in exile Focusing on the study of contemporary Iranian dance through analysis of the choreographies of three female dancers in diaspora namely Aisan Hoss Shahrzad Khorsandi and Banafsheh Sayyad this research is among the first of its kind Elaheh Hatami investigates the transformation of professional Iranian dance and discusses the role of relocation and displacement in its performance She argues that Iranian dance and Iranian female dancers have always been in exile not only in a physical sense but also in the metaphorical sense of exile implying foreignness exclusion and marginalization

Barbarians and Civilization in International Relations Mark B. Salter,2002-09-20 The terrorist attacks in New York and Washington have led to popular conceptions of Muslims as terrorists Some commentators have harked back to the Clash of Civilizations argument outlined by Samuel Huntington which argued that after the collapse of the Cold War culture would become the main axis of conflict for civilisational alliances Mark Salter takes issue with Huntington's theory and explains how the terms of his argument are part of an imperialist discourse that casts other civilisations as essentially barbarian Although many commentators have engaged with Huntington's claims few have pursued the political implications of his argument Barbarians and Civilisation offers a decisive exploration of the colonial rhetoric inherent in current political discourse Charting the usefulness of concepts of culture and identity for understanding world politics Salter brilliantly illustrates the benefits and the limitations of the civilised barbarian dichotomy in international relations

Encyclopedia of Nineteenth-Century Photography John Hannavy, 2013-12-16 The Encyclopedia of Nineteenth Century Photography is the first comprehensive encyclopedia of world photography up to the beginning of the twentieth century It sets out to be the standard definitive reference work on the subject for years to come Its coverage is global an important first in that authorities from all over the world have contributed their expertise and scholarship towards making this a truly comprehensive publication The Encyclopedia presents new and ground breaking research alongside accounts of the major established figures in the nineteenth century arena Coverage includes all the key people processes equipment movements styles debates and groupings which helped photography develop from being a solution in search of a problem when first invented to the essential communication tool creative medium and recorder of everyday life which it had become by the dawn of the twentieth century The sheer breadth of coverage in the 1200 essays makes the Encyclopedia of Nineteenth Century Photography an essential reference source for academics students researchers and libraries worldwide

Islamic Reform and Conservatism Indira Falk Gesink, 2009-11-30 The famed reform debates at al Azhar Madrasa in nineteenth century Cairo one of the most influential centres of religious study in Sunni Islam were enormously influential for twentieth century Islamic thought Here Indira Gesink offers a revisionist history of these debates over curricular and administrative reforms and challenges our understanding of the struggle between Islamic reform and conservatism It has been assumed that famous Islamic modernists such as Muhammad Abduh instigated the reform movement and the ideas of modern religious life that emanated from al Azhar and permeated Islamic society a development that religious conservatives opposed Gesink draws on obscure but important archival sources legal manuals and ephemeral journals to tell the other side of the story and to illustrate the important contributions of conservative scholars to the evolution of twentieth century Sunni Islam Conservative opponents of reform engaged many of the same issues as reformers and actively pursued alternative visions of reform In fact texts of enacted reforms show greater attention to concerns of conservatives than to the original programmes of Muhammad Abduh and conservatives led ulama committees that generated and implemented reforms Had religious conservatives not contributed to the reforms of the early twentieth century these reforms would have lacked the crucial cultural assonance that permitted them to become rooted in public life in an environment of rising nationalist anti British sentiment which saw Abduh as a willing agent of colonialists The debates ultimately catalyzed public acceptance of secularism Islamic modernism and radical Islamism They also led to the practice of lay legal interpretation the proliferation of competing interpretations within Sunni Islam and the rise of militant sects By drawing on obscure archival sources and restoring conservative voices to the debate Islamic Reform and Conservatism presents a more nuanced picture of the al Azhar debates and the forces that shaped Islamic religious life in the twentieth century than has become the norm Its original scholarship and fresh analysis make this book indispensable for all those interested in the modern Middle East religious history Islamic studies radical Islam and militancy secularism modernism and religious reform

Egyptomania Ronald H. Fritze, 2021-02-04 Egyptomania takes us on a historical journey to unearth the Egypt of the imagination a land of strange gods mysterious magic secret knowledge monumental pyramids enigmatic sphinxes and immense wealth Egypt has always exerted a powerful attraction on the Western mind and an array of figures have been drawn to the idea of Egypt Even the practical minded Napoleon dreamed of Egyptian glory and helped open the antique land to explorers Ronald H Fritze goes beyond art and architecture to reveal Egyptomania s impact on religion philosophy historical study literature travel science and popular culture All those who remain captivated by the ongoing phenomenon of Egyptomania will revel in the mysteries uncovered in this book

Aesthetics and Gender in American Literature Deborah Barker, 2000 In their challenge to a gendered racialized evolutionary aesthetics as embodied in the female copyist as an icon of cultural reproduction these women writers enact in a fictional format what many recent feminists address at the theoretical level a resistance to essentialist definitions of women s nature and to universal standards of high culture

BOOK JACKET The Homoerotics of Orientalism Joseph A. Boone, 2014-03-18 The place of the Middle East in European heterosexual fantasy is well documented in the works of Edward Said and others yet few have considered the male Anglo European and later American writers artists travelers and thinkers compelled to represent what to their eyes seemed to be an abundance of erotic relations between men in the Islamicate world Whether feared or desired the mere possibility of sexual contact with or between men in the Middle East has covertly underwritten much of the appeal and practice of the enterprise of Orientalism frequently repeating yet just as often upending its assumed meanings Traces of this undertow abound in European and Middle Eastern fiction diaries travel literature erotica ethnography painting photography film and digital media Joseph Allen Boone explores these vast representations linking European art to Middle Eastern sources largely unfamiliar to Western audiences and in some cases reproduced in this volume for the first time

Microtravel Charles Forsdick, Zoë Kinsley, Kate Walchester, 2024-06-04 The 2020 COVID 19 pandemic imposed immobility on large sectors of the world s population with confinement becoming an everyday reality The lives of those who previously enjoyed the privileges of being fast castes ground to a halt while at the same time the displacement of more vulnerable populations along well established migration corridors has been radically reduced The result has been a recalibration of the scale of journeying with travellers slowing down their journeys and readjusting their relationship to the proximate and nearby This situation has provided an opportunity for those who study travel and travel writing to rethink their objects of study and approaches to them This volume explores and historicizes the phenomenon of microtravel designating slower journeys within a limited radius which allow and sometimes necessitate new forms of experiencing the world
