Spectrum Fl Test Prep Gr 4, Grade 4 Vincent Douglas, 2003-08-01 Language arts and mathematics test preparation questions appropriate for children in the 4th grade based on the Florida Comprehensive Assessment Test Florida Administrative Weekly, 2003 , Expository Discourse in Children, Adolescents, and Adults Marilyn A. Nippold, Cheryl M. Scott, 2010 School success in the 21st century requires proficiency with expository discourse the use and understanding of informative language in spoken and written modalities This occurs for example when high school students read their textbooks and listen to their teachers lectures and later are asked to demonstrate their knowledge of this complex topic through oral reports and essay examinations Although many students are proficient with the expository genre others struggle to meet these expectations This book is designed to provide information on the use and understanding of expository discourse in school age children adolescents and young adults Recently researchers from around the world have been investigating the development of this genre in typical students and in those with language disorders Although many books have addressed the development of conversational and narrative discourse by comparison books devoted to the topic of expository discourse are sparse This crossdisciplinary volume fills that gap in the literature and makes a unique contribution to the study of language development and disorders It will be of interest to a range of professionals including speech language pathologists teachers linguists and psychologists who are concerned with language development and disorders

Reading Interventions for the Improvement of the Reading Performances of Bilingual and Bi-Dialectal Children Dr. Afra Johnson, 2015-10-29 The book explores the remedial pedagogy applied during intervention designed to improve the students metacognitive processes of learning new English language knowledge Todays globalization and technology on social behaviors demand that school age students acquire reading skills by the use of audio visual practices The linguistic integrations during the intervention processes combined with direct instruction produced an individualized awareness of improvements in comprehension Each student cognitively processed the audio input and visual text My findings were related to the cultural practices of ESOL and ELL students to counteract the mismatch between home and school language frameworks This type of technique encourages students to use the concepts of the English language related to what they hear read and speak within and outside of the school environment Teaching to Change the World Jeannie

The Oppositional Culture Theory Paul C. Mocombe, Carol Tomlin, 2010-10-11 Mocombe and Tomlin explore the black white achievement gap in America and Great Britain gaining understanding through black bourgeois living and the labeled pathologies of the black underclass Within the class dualism of capitalist social relations blacks throughout the Diaspora attempt to exist in the world Furthermore blacks must construct their identities and be in the world by choosing between the discursive practices of the Protestant and capitalist ideology of the black Protestant bourgeoisie or the beliefs of the black underclass which appear to dismiss these practices as acting white John Ogbu s term Presently the practical consciousness constituted as hip hop culture of the black underclass supported by finance capital have dominated the American and global social structure and one of its dys functions is the black white achievement gap which is a global phenomenon emanating from black America and affecting blacks around the globe Although the histories of blacks in America and in Great Britain are fundamentally different Mocombe and Tomlin argue in this work that during the age of globalization the social functions of the dominating black consciousness hip hop culture coming out of America are the locus of causality for the black white achievement gap in America and Great Britain Tomlin highlights this problematic by analyzing effective strategies employed by high achieving blacks in Great Britain and Mocombe does the same through an analysis of an effective reading curriculum in an American inner city after school program
