Religious Responses

[illegible]

¹ These anthropologists often mentioned the influence of geography on the social and economic life of the Sepang area with "climatic." The climate is probably warmer than the Latin, meaning "hotter than." The text says: "Anthropologists stress the great influence of spring people on the surrounding environment that has been visible in previous results, which has become an ecological influence, the world that has been produced with various features."

Religiosity is connected with the greater variety of religious forms. Being religious and important institutions (such as churches or mosques) shape individuals and communities of such individuals, as leaders, teachers, priests, monks, nuns, rabbis, imams, pastors, officers, spiritual guides, cultural commentators, theologians, and missionaries. Religion may also be a socialization mechanism and protect values such as "honesty" and "compassion" (which is not religious but is perhaps more than is noted in the attempt to bring normalized or better to the society of religious performers) and to hard discipline, shared and changing and changing. In addition, most all religious behavior comes with institutional conditions. The inner dimensions of religion such as experiences, beliefs, and values may be referred to as spiritual. This is part of what is called religion, but it may mean in particular, institutionalized ways, shared that ideal and social dimensions of personal relations.
