contemplated again and again after the reading act itself is completed In a meaningful way the reader's quest and its discoveries are life enduring and life fulfilling The purpose of this volume is two fold to establish and explore the essential features of reader response theory and its rendering of the reading process and to acknowledge a philosophy of teaching and to illustrate teaching strategies to evoke and enhance readers responses Understanding the ways in which the reader affects the reading and how the reading happens will illuminate classroom pedagogy This text establishes and explores the essential features of reader response theory and its rendering of the reading process The essays acknowledge a philosophy of teaching and illustrate a spectrum of teaching strategies to evoke and enhance readers responses including whole and small group discussion story drama readers theatre journal writing scripts letters stories and other writings and body punctuation A case study format is used to illustrate these strategies in action in real classrooms

Literature Study Circles in a Multicultural Classroom Katharine Davies Samway, Gail Whang, 1996 Because all they've got is a skeleton They don't have a heart and a brain or anything Sean a student in Gail Whang's classroom Sean is talking about reading textbooks Like too many students his experiences of school reading have been confined to the excerpted and abridged stories that often appear in reading texts Even in an era when literature based reading instruction is becoming more popular turning children on to books does not appear to be happening Katharine and Gail show how they changed this trend in Gail's fifth sixth grade classroom Gail's students are considered at risk because they are nonnative English speakers and/or come from low income homes And like many inner city teachers in similar situations Gail realized her language arts program was not working As bored and discouraged as her students she explored alternatives to traditional methods and began to use literature study circles LSCs to engage students and help them develop their abilities to think and talk about issues in their lives A thoroughly practical book Literature Study Circles Helps teachers move from curriculum centered to learner centered teaching Provides sample documents used in LSCs and examples of students written responses to books Includes bibliographies of popular fifth sixth grade literature lists of African American
