My Love For God Scriptures And Poetry:

My Love for God Joseph Floyd, 2014-11-04 This book takes the reader through ways I prepare my mind for each day I walk with God Since God and I have this relationship I don't mind sharing some of my thoughts about how I feel about God and what we talk about during my morning This is the third book of 50 days and it is amazing to me I have not run out of days and I know I have not made it to 365 yet I feel I will have no problem getting there At the same time I have an opportunity to show the reader my poetry poetry is not dead This book makes me feel so much alive and I know it is God's love and joy that I feel inside I feel good Enjoy this book and then go back and read first two books Spring Mornings with God and My Mother's Love The Bible and Poetry Michael Edwards, 2023-08-15 A fresh provocative look at the link between poetry and Christianity both as it relates to the Bible itself as well as to Christian and religious life by an accomplished scholar The Bible is full of poems In the Old Testament there are the Psalms and the Song of Songs the great exhortations and lamentations of the Prophets and passages of poetry woven in throughout In the New Testament Jesus describes the kingdom of heaven with poetic epithets such as a treasure hid in a field calling the Son of God the true vine the light of the world the good shepherd and the way the truth and the life The Gospels reverberate with allusions to the poetry of the Old Testament the last book of all is Revelation a visionary poem The Bible in other words asks to be read poetically from start to end and yet readers have rarely considered what that might mean much less heeded that call In The Bible and Poetry the poet and scholar Michael Edwards reshapes our understanding of the Bible and religious belief arguing that poetry is not an ornamental or accidental feature but is central to both He speaks personally of his early unanticipated transformative encounters with scripture He offers close insightful and resonant readings of biblical passages Poetry as he sees it is the vital and necessary medium of the Creator's word and the truth of the Bible is not a question of precepts and propositions but of a direct experience of its poetry its power Bible Poem or Versified Scripture in Rhyme Amos J. Davis, 2021-05-07 This devotional of poetic meditations grew out of forty five years of expository preaching and self reflection The author's intermittent attempts at poetry reveal both his best and worst parts These poems reflect experience as a follower of Jesus and inward battle with sin shame sadness defeats yet always the word of God leads to the gospel of Jesus Christ and his victory his forgiveness his power his love and his hope Never without the realization of sinfulness and the sufficiency of the work of Jesus Christ many live daily on a continuum between these two poles of striving by faith to rest in Christ and agonizing over the heart's inclination to wander By God's grace and through his Spirit that movement may be more toward victory than defeat Jesus Walks With Me: Uplifting Spiritual and Inspirational Christian Poems and Bible Scriptures ,

Quiet Time Poems David Edwin Hall,2014-11-06 Every day there are treasures to be discovered by anyone who will honestly come to hear the voice of the Savior in his Word The Lord Jesus indicates that there is an added blessing for those who will write down the insights he gives by his instruction Every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old Matthew 13 52 The poems in this book are the result of going to the Bible each day with an expectation that God has something very valuable to say That expectation has NEVER been disappointed Our risen Lord said I stand at the door and knock If any man hears My voice and opens the door I will come into him and will sup with him and he with Me Revelation 3 20 This intimate two way communion with God is offered to all those who have received the Lord Jesus Christ John 1 12 and thereby have received not the spirit of the world but the Spirit which is of God that we might know the things that are freely given to us by God 1 Corinthians 2 12 My prayer is that God may use this book for his glory for the encouragement of his own children and for the persuasion of those who may yet be awakened to their need of our Savior Blessed is the man that heareth Me watching daily at My gates waiting at the post of My doors Proverbs 8 34 Heaven is waiting Don't miss it for the world The Bible Story and Its Teaching for Children Baroness Freda De Knoop,1913 Bible Stories and Poems Wilbur Fisk Crafts,1914

Backscheider,2005-12-31 Co Winner James Russell Lowell Prize Modern Language Association This major study offers a broad view of the writing and careers of eighteenth century women poets casting new light on the ways in which poetry was read and enjoyed on changing poetic tastes in British culture and on the development of many major poetic genres and traditions Rather than presenting a chronological survey Paula R Backscheider explores the forms in which women wrote and the uses to which they put those forms Considering more than forty women in relation to canonical male writers of the same era she concludes that women wrote in all of the genres that men did but often adapted revised and even created new poetic kinds from traditional forms Backscheider demonstrates that knowledge of these women's poetry is necessary for an accurate and nuanced literary history Within chapters on important canonical and popular verse forms she gives particular attention to such topics as women's use of religious poetry to express candid ideas about patriarchy and rape the continuing evolution and important role of the supposedly antiquarian genre of the friendship poetry same sex desire in elegy by women as well as by men and the status of Charlotte Smith as a key figure of the long eighteenth century not only as a Romantic era poet Poems and Verse of Winifred Holtby Antony Webb, 2013-01-16 This book was conceived after reading Vera Brittain's Testament of Youth and Testament of Friendship Winifred Holtby died very early after suffering from Bright's Disease renal failure aged only 37 in 1935 Into these years she crammed more than most people achieve in an average life She was a kind gentle and very generous person she had a strong belief in equality of sex race and status and was a very strong feminist She became a Director of the feminist newspaper Time and Tide She wrote several novels the most famous being South Riding During her life she also wrote many poems but they were not published apart from 16 in a very small book called Frozen Earth and Other Poems 1935 The Poems and Verse of Winifred Holtby captures the majority of her poetical works which point to periods in her life including the WAAC during 1918 Trains in France her time in South Africa in 1928 Hills of the Transvaal and the problems she had with Harry Pearson her boy friend that isn't a boyfriend The Dead Man Epilogue to Romance The Robber and The Grudging Ghost The span of the poems range from examples of her early work Namely Only and Sad Ascension Day which should appeal to children and young adults to The Debt which describes Winifred's feeling of the debt she thought she owed to life which gives the reader an idea of the caring person that she was through to one poignant poem which she wrote towards the end of her life The Valley of Shadows which is a poem of love and thankfulness and shows the debt she considered she owed to her close friend Vera Brittain The Complete Poems of Rabindranath Tagore's Gitanjali S K Paul, 2006
