New York School Journal, 1904      A Descriptive Guide to the Best Fiction, British and American Ernest Albert Baker, 1903      A Descriptive Guide to the Best Fiction, British and American, Including Translations from Foreign Languages Ernest Albert Baker, 1903      British Romanticism and Italian Literature, 2005-01-01 Drawing on a long standing tradition of fictional images British writers of the Romantic period defined and constructed Italy as a land that naturally invites inscription and description In their works Italy is a cultural geography so heavily overwritten with discourse that it becomes the natural recipient of further fictional transformations If critics have frequently attended to this figurative complex and its related Italophilia what seems to have been left relatively unexplored is the fact that these representations were paralleled and sustained by intense scholarly activities This volume specifically addresses Romantic period scholarship about Italian literature history and culture under the interconnected rubrics of translating reviewing and rewriting The essays in this book consider this rich field of scholarly activity in order to redraw its contours and examine its connections with the fictional images of Italy and the general fascination with this land and its civilization that are a crucial component of British culture between the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries      Garden at Monceau Carmontelle, 2020-12-08 Carmontelle's landmark publication Garden at Monceau beautifully reproduced to show the Parisian garden's artistic and cultural importance before the French Revolution Originally published in 1779 Garden at Monceau is a richly illustrated presentation of the garden Louis Carrogis known as Carmontelle designed on the eve of the French Revolution for Louis

Philippe Joseph d'Orléans duc de Chartres With its array of architectural follies intended to surprise and amaze the visitor the garden was a setting for ancien régime social life Carmontelle's portrayal of his work in Garden at Monceau therefore serves as an expression of a key moment in the history of European landscape design garden architecture and social history This facsimile edition with its English language text and reproductions of the original engravings is accompanied by essays that interpret the landscape design and examine Carmontelle's larger career as a painter and theater producer Dramatic Works Gerhart Hauptmann, 1914

The Politics of the Revised Version Alan Cadwallader, 2018-12-13 Alan Cadwallader explores the intricate tensions and conflicts that infused the work of revision of the Authorised Version of the Bible between 1870 and 1885 The Promethean aspirations of the venture actually generated one of the most bitter instances of the political manoeuvres involved in the translation of a sacred book Cadwallader reveals how the public avowal of unity and fraternal harmony that accompanied the public release and marketing of the New Testament revision in 1881 and the Old Testament revision in 1885 masks fraught historical realities that threatened the realization of the project from the beginning Through a thorough examination of private correspondence notebooks kept by various members of the New Testament Revision Companies in England and the United States and other previously unstudied primary sources

Cadwallader examines and presents the complexities of the political situation surrounding the translation. He exposes the competing interests of an imperial sovereign nation and a seriously divided Established Church floundering over its continued relevance, the ambitions and significance of Nonconformity in a nation's highly contested religious environment, the agonistic conflicts that erupted from assertions of national and international prestige and responsibilities, and the ultimate control exercised by publishing houses that fundamentally flawed the process of revision and the public acceptance of the final product.
