Le Nouvel Esprit De Famille:

Le nouvel esprit de famille Claudine Attias-Donfut, Nicole Lapierre, Martine Segalen, 2002 Enquête sur les liens familiaux tels qu'ils se vivent au quotidien entre toutes les générations dans la France de ce début de XXI^e siècle Beyond the Nuclear Family Eric Widmer, Riitta Jallinoja, 2008 The importance of significant family contexts that are not easily circumscribed with reference to a household or a limited set of family roles has been underlined throughout the last two decades by researchers A strong interest for family relationships beyond the nuclear family has emerged in the social sciences The various contributions to this book develop a configurational approach to families which emphasizes interdependencies existing among large numbers of family members and reconsiders some of the central issues of family life in this light fertility projects childcare and socialization monetary transfers across generations and support for the elderly relationships with grandparents uncles aunts and in laws gender inequalities divorce and other family disruptions and the importance of friends and acquaintances for families Beyond very real changes affecting the structures of family life since the sixties the book reveals that basic forms of togetherness still underlie much of what is going on in family configurations

Coming into the World Giovanni Battista La Sala, Piergiuseppina Fagandini, Vanna Iori, Fiorella Monti, Isaac Blickstein, 2009-02-26 Prominent scientists from perinatal medicine paediatrics psychology and sociology will meet in Modena Italy to explore birth as a complex psychological experience for mother father and child The proceedings of this interdisciplinary congress are here published in English to reach the broadest possible scientific audience The goal is to create a dialogue between humanistic and medical perspectives with regard to conception pregnancy and birth in an era of rapid biotechnological progress taking different social and cultural contexts into account Family Beyond Household and Kin Catherine Bonvalet, Eva Lelièvre, 2016-01-06 This book analyzes the family and residential trajectories of men and women across the twentieth century which are placed in a long term generational perspective and in the historical context where they played out It brings together a set of studies based on data from the Biographies et Entourage Life Event Histories and Entourage survey conducted by the Institut National d'Etudes Démographiques INED on a representative sample of nearly 3 000 residents of the Paris region born between 1930 and 1950 Inside readers will discover an insightful analysis of the family that moves away from such traditional concepts as the household or main residence and proposes new ones like the entourage and the residential system This innovative approach to the family network describes an affective and residential proximity that takes into account the relatives and close friends who have played or continue to play a role in an individual's life The book first presents a detailed analysis of the Biographies et Entourage survey respondents' parental universe and proposes a practical approach to the notion of parenthood that reveals the family and non family resources available to individuals Next it describes the evolution of the respondents' family networks both in and beyond the household and details how these family circles shape their subjective judgments during childhood adolescence and adult life Coverage then goes on to examine the family ties of older adults the role of grandparents and step families the importance of family spaces including often frequented places and inter generational family solidarity Families extend well beyond the walls of the home Interpersonal relations are constructed throughout the life course and in all the settings where they play out This book takes this new family reality into account and traces its dynamics across time and space It provides essential tools for researchers looking to conduct life event history surveys and to develop innovative areas of research in the social sciences

Drinking Dilemmas Thomas Thurnell-Read, 2015-12-14 Drinking and drunkenness have become a focal point for political and media debates to contest notions of responsibility discipline and risk yet at the same time academic studies have highlighted the positive aspects of drinking in relation to sociability belonging and identity These issues are at the heart of this volume which brings together the work of academics and researchers exploring social and cultural aspects of contemporary drinking practices These drinking practices are enormously varied and are spatially and culturally defined The contributions to the volume draw on research settings from across the UK and beyond to demonstrate both the complexity and diversity of drinking subjectivities and practices Across these examples tensions relating to gender social class age and the life course are particularly prominent Rather than align to now long established moral discourses about what constitutes good and bad drinking sociological approaches to alcohol foreground the vivid lived nature of alcohol consumption and the associated experiences of drunkenness and intoxication In doing so the volume illuminates the controversial yet important social and cultural roles played by drink for individuals and groups across a range of social contexts

Renewing the Family: A History of the Baby Boomers Catherine Bonvalet, Céline Clément, Jim Ogg, 2014-10-10

This book traces the history of the baby boomers beginning with an explanation of the cause of the post war baby boom and ending with the contemporary concerns of ageing boomers. It shows how the baby boomers challenged traditional family attitudes and adopted new lifestyles in the 1960s and 1970s. Drawing on 90 interviews conducted with baby boomers living in London and Paris the book demonstrates how their aspirations for leisure and consumption converged with family responsibilities and obligations. It shows how the baby boomers emerged from an authoritative upbringing to challenge some of the traditional assumptions of the family such as marriage and cohabitation. The rise of feminism led by the baby boomers is examined together with its impact on family forms and structures. The book shows how women's trajectories veered between the two extremes of family and employment swerving between the models of stay at home mother and working woman. It demonstrates how new family configurations such as solo parenting and recomposed families were adopted by the baby boomers. Today as they enter into retirement the baby boomers remain closely involved in the lives of their children and parents although relationships with elderly parents are maintained primarily through a sense of duty and obligation. The book concludes that the baby boomers have both been influenced by and actors to the changes and transformations that have occurred to family life. They reconciled and continue to reconcile individualism with family obligations. As grandparents often with an ageing parent still alive the baby boomers wish to keep the independence that has been the hallmark of their generation whilst not abandoning family life.

Situating Children of Migrants across Borders and Origins Claudio Bolzman, Laura Bernardi, Jean-Marie Le Goff, 2017-10-25 This open access wide ranging collation of papers examines a host of issues in studying second generation immigrants their life courses and their relations with older generations Tightly focused on methodological aspects both quantitative and qualitative the volume features the work of authors from numerous countries from differing disciplines and approaches A key addition in a corpus of literature which has until now been restricted to studying the childhood adolescence and youth of the children of immigrants the material includes analysis of longitudinal and transnational efforts to address challenges such as defining the population to be studied and the difficulties of follow up research that spans both time and geographic space In addition to perceptive reviews of extant literature chapters also detail work in surveying the children of immigrants in Europe the USA and elsewhere Authors address key questions such as the complexities of surveying each generation in families where parents have migrated and left children in their country of origin and the epistemological advances in methodology which now challenge assumptions based on the Westphalian nation state paradigm The book is in part an outgrowth of temporal factors immigrants children are now reaching adulthood in more significant numbers but also reflects the added sophistication and sensitivity of social science surveys In linking theoretical and methodological factors it shows just how much the study of these second generations and their families can be enriched by evolving methodologies This book is open access under a CC BY license

Spotlights on Contemporary Family Life - FAMILYPLATFORM - Families in Europe Vol. 2 Linden Farrer, 2011

Transnational Families, Migration and the Circulation of Care Loretta Baldassar, Laura Merla, 2013-09-11 Without denying the difficulties that confront migrants and their distant kin this volume highlights the agency of family members in transnational processes of care in an effort to acknowledge the transnational family as an increasingly common family form and to question the predominantly negative conceptualisations of this type of family It re conceptualises transnational care as a set of activities that circulates between home and host countries across generations and fluctuates over the life course going beyond a focus on mother child relationships to include multidirectional exchanges across generations and between genders It highlights in particular how the sense of belonging in transnational families is sustained by the reciprocal though uneven exchange of caregiving which binds members together in intergenerational networks of reciprocity and obligation love and trust that are simultaneously fraught with tension contest and relations of unequal power The chapters that make up this volume cover a rich array of ethnographic case studies including analyses of transnational families who circulate care between developing nations in Africa Latin America and Asia to wealthier nations in North America Europe and Australia There are also examples of intra and extra European Australian and North American migration which involve the mobility of both the unskilled and working class as well as the skilled middle and aspirational classes
