Laura M. Rival, Neil L. Whitehead, 2001 The contributors to this volume explore the legacy of Peter Rivière recently retired Professor of Social Anthropology University of Oxford in the development of the anthropology of Amazonia This international group of leading specialists contributes to the substantial and growing body of Amazonian ethnography discussing topics which include kinship and genealogy the village as a unit of ethnographic observation and analysis the human body in political and social processes and gender relationships as aspects of political cosmological thinking In addition the ethnology of the Guianas receives particular emphasis as do the themes of shamanism history and colonialism as they have affected this region In showing how alive the field of Amazonian anthropology has become whilst pointing to conceptual aspects in need of further elaboration the contributors demonstrate their shared conviction that the impact of Amazonian ethnology is becoming comparable to that of African ethnology in the 1950s and Melanesian ethnology in the 1980s César Franck Robert James Stove, 2012 César Franck 1822-1890 Belgian born and French domiciled was one of the most remarkable composers of the 19th century A number of his works are commonly recorded such as his Symphony in D Minor Symphonic Variations Violin Sonata and the ever popular Panis Angelicus and yet 38 years have elapsed since a biography of him appeared in English Now with César Franck His Life and Times R J Stove fills this gap in the history of late 19th century classical music with a full length study of the man and his music Drawing on sources never before cited in English Stove paints a far more detailed picture of this great musician and deeply loved man whose influence in both his native and adopted lands was exceptional Stove carefully delves into intimate matters of Franck's life including his resilience in the face of his exploitation as a child prodigy at the piano his development from a shy and harassed piano teacher into one of the most sought after luminaries of Paris's Conservatoire and the truth behind Franck's alleged affair with one of his students Throughout his study Stove interweaves panoramic surveys of the political and social scene in Belgium and France contextualizing Franck's achievements in his historical milieu from his rise as a recognized master of the organ to his dealings with significant composers such as Liszt Gounod Saint Saëns Massenet Chabrier and others César Franck His Life and Times is an engagingly written biography sure to interest classical music listeners of all stripes Le Journal d'Edith
