Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle, 1856 In Our Own Image Istvan Hargittai, Magdolna Hargittai, 2000-02-29 The title of our volume refers to what is well described by the following two quotations: God created man in his own image and Man creates God in his own image. 2 Our approach to symmetry is subjective and the term personal symmetry reflects this approach in our discussion of selected scientific events. We have chosen six icons to symbolize six areas: Kepler for modeling Fuller for new molecules Pauling for helical structures Kitaigorodskii for packing Bernal for quasicrystals and Curie for dissymmetry. For the past three decades we have been involved in learning, thinking, speaking and writing about symmetry. This involvement has augmented our principal activities in molecular structure research. Our interest in symmetry had started with a simple fascination and has evolved into a highly charged personal topic for us. At the start of this volume we had had several authored and edited symmetry related books behind us. We owe a debt of gratitude to the numerous people whose interviews are quoted in this volume. We very much appreciate the kind and gracious cooperation of Edgar J. Applewhite, Washington DC; Lawrence S. Bartell, University of Michigan R. The Athenaeum, 1910 The Academy, 1897 The Dial, 1916 A New English Dictionary on Historical Principles James Augustus Henry Murray, 1919 The American Review of Reviews, 1915 "A" New English Dictionary on Historical Principles William A. Haralson, 2014-01-21 The Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Twentieth Century contains over 400 entries that treat a broad range of individual poets and poems along with many articles devoted to topics, schools or periods of American verse in the century. Entries fall into three main categories: poet entries which provide biographical and cultural contexts for the author's career; entries on individual works which offer closer explication of the most resonant poems in the 20th century canon; and topical entries which offer analyses of a given period of literary production, school, thematically constructed category or other verse tradition that historically has been in dialogue with the poetry of the United States. Literary Digest, 1914 The Athenæum, 1859 Book Review Digest, 1918
