is an introduction to interactionist work in education during the 1970s and 80s The interactionist viewpoint concentrates on how people construct meanings in the ebb and flow of everyday life what they think and do how they react to one another and has in recent years established itself as one of the leading approaches in education It has generated illuminating research studies which by being firmly based in the real world of teaching and dealing with the fine grained details of school life have helped to break down the barriers between teacher and researcher This volume presents the results of this valuable work within a coherent theoretical framework by focusing on the major interactionist concepts of situation perspectives cultures strategies negotiation and careers By bringing them together in this way the author demonstrates their collective potential for the deeper understanding of school life and the possibilities for sociological theory His book therefore offers both a summary of and a reflection on achievement in the area of interactionism as it relates to schools St. Nicholas Mary
