The authors of important references to the 1980s will appreciate being able to read others' comments and perhaps be alerted to issues that others are finding useful or relevant to their research, although this means that, possibly in some periods of particularly high comment, the paper themselves, inevitably, become passive recipients of commentary. However, the hope is that the comments themselves might suggest areas of good writing or research that are worth their consideration and perhaps, for some of us, to be worthy of a response, and, consequently, to have a greater impact.

The authors gratefully acknowledge support from the National Science Foundation Grant DMR-9706809.

Hitler: Philosopher King Mark Morris,2020-08-30 Hitler and the NSDAP are a social and historical phenomenon and this book proposes that Hitler s Aspergic personality and postmodern philosophy combined to enable both his personal political success and then the nature of the regime that he constructed Hitler himself was clearly not a normal human being genius and exceptional in some areas his Asperger s enabled him to single mindedly pursue personal and political power Nietzsche s crystallisation of the previous century and a half of German idealism in a rigorous moral and cultural nihilism was reified and rolled out with Weberian bureaucratic and Prussian militaristic efficiency The post modern state created did not rest on history religious or cultural traditions Ideology was shaped instrumentally in order to yield the maximal amount of the only currency that survives the caustic deconstruction of postmodernism namely power itself Mateo 26-28 Amy Welborn,2010-06 Killing Shore K.
