Cooper,Judith Glaesser,Roger Gomm,Martyn Hammersley,2012-03-08 This book challenges the divide between qualitative and quantitative approaches that is now institutionalized within social science Rather than suggesting the mixing of methods

Challenging the Qualitative Quantitative Divide provides a thorough interrogation of the arguments and practices characteristic of both sides of the divide focusing on how well they address the common problems that all social research faces particularly as regards causal analysis The authors identify some fundamental weaknesses in both quantitative and qualitative approaches and explore whether case focused analysis for instance in the form of Qualitative Comparative

Analysis Analytic Induction Grounded Theorising or Cluster Analysis can bridge the gap between the two sides

Knowledge, Values and Educational Policy Harry Daniels,Hugh Lauder,Jill Porter,2012-07-26 Knowledge Values and Educational Policy focuses on what schools are for and what should be taught in them how learning is possible across boundaries and issues of diversity and equity Policies and practices relating to schools are also considered Within this volume internationally renowned contributors address a number of fundamental questions designed to take the reader to the heart of current debates around curriculum knowledge transfer equity and social justice and system reform such as What are schools and what are they for What knowledge should schools teach How are learners different from each other and how are groups of learners different from one another in terms of social class gender ethnicity and disability What influence does educational policy have on improving schools What influence does research have on our understanding of education and schooling To encourage reflection many of the chapters also include questions for debate and a guide to further reading Read alongside its companion volume Educational Theories Cultures and Learning readers will be encouraged to consider and think about on some of the key issues facing education and educationists today
