Bushell,Erin L. Olivio,Neil D. Theise,2009-09-21 A revolution is occurring in the Western science of longevity regeneration and health that is elucidating the potential for extended human lifespan in an optimal state of health This investigation is being conducted on the molecular cellular physiological and psychological levels Rigorous integrative medicine research can only be adequately developed if collaboration between scientists and practitioners from both fields is involved This volume brings together researchers and scholars from both the Indo Tibetan traditions and the international scientific community to open a dialogue about the potential to build a program of collaborative research to study the impact of Indo Tibetan practices on longevity and health Indo Tibetan Buddhism claims that its core of meditative yogic and related practices can potentially produce dramatic enhancements of physiological and psychological functioning and a substantial body of Western scientific evidence is supportive of these claims The evidence includes direct and indirect clinical medicine and data from basic science research in physiology neurobiology and medicine The reports in this volume establish a basis for a program of research that will advance our current understanding of longevity and health NOTE Annals volumes are available for sale as individual books or as a journal For information on institutional journal subscriptions please visit www blackwellpublishing com nyas ACADEMY MEMBERS Please contact the New York Academy of Sciences directly to place your order www nyas org Members of the New York Academy of Science receive full text access to the Annals online and discounts on print volumes Please visit www nyas org membership main asp for more information about becoming a member Luke, Widows, Judges, and Stereotypes , Febbie C. Dickerson, 2019-08-01 Biblical narratives are not simply sacred stories for religious communities They are stories that provide transformative insight into cultural biases By putting historical criticism and reception history into dialogue with womanist biblical hermeneutics Luke Widows Judges and Stereotypes offers a provocative reading of Jesus parable about a widow who confronts a judge and obtains what she seeks by means of physical threat Rather than simply reading the widow as the model for one who prays always and does not lose heart Luke 18 1 Dickerson shows that read in the context of Luke s wider narrative the widow domesticated and robbed both of her agency and moral ambiguity is more likely demanding vengeance instead of justice Likewise rather than simply reading the judge as one who neither feared God nor had respect for people Luke 18 2 Dickerson argues that the judge is both an ideal man and one who compromises standards of ancient masculinity Then reading both the widow and judge through African American stereotypes Mammy Jezebel Sapphire Cool Black Male Master Pastor and Foolish Judge that are used to degrade debase and control and reading them into and in light of the parable Dickerson demonstrates how the parable calls into question these stereotypes thereby producing new liberative readings Banking Information Index , 2004 Race and Crime Shaun L. Imagining Black Womanhood Stephanie D. Sears, 2010-09-01 Imagining Black Womanhood illuminates the experiences of the women and girls of the Girls Empowerment Project, an Afrocentric womanist single-sex after-school program located in one of the Bay Area's largest and most impoverished housing developments. Stephanie Sears carefully examines the stakes of the complex negotiations of Black womanhood for both the girls served by the project and for the women who staffed it. Rather than a multigenerational alliance committed to women's and girls' empowerment, the women and girls often appeared to struggle against each other with the girls' politics of respect often in conflict with the staff's politics of respectability, a conflict especially highlighted in the public contexts of dance performances. This ground-breaking case study offers significant insights into practices of resistance, identity work, youth empowerment, cultural politics, and organizational power.
