

Summary of Kierkegaard

- We got through 1-7 of the summary questions on canvas yesterday
- The reading is basically about personal experience of Abraham
 - What did he feel as a father, as a solitary individual?
 - His experience is so unrelatable and horrifying
 - His story makes us think about faith and morality
- Goal of writing: Kierkegaard's self discovery / self-revelation
 - NOT A SYSTEMATIC theory
 - An examination of human capabilities
- Knowing you have the capability to be faithful, how are you going to respond to that capability?
- He emphasizes imagination / experimentation about this story for the sake of insight about existential issues

What are existential issues of Abraham's story?

- What is the difference between reason and faith?
- Faith is about giving up everything for someone you love
 - Faith is about passion
 - About being absurd
- Keyword: absurd
 - Believing in strength of the absurd
 - Abraham shows us absurd faith
 - He's not just resigned to what God wants
 - Abraham is unique for his joy afterwards: never loses trust in God after this ordeal
 - This joy sets him apart from the usual believer
 - He is able to give up temporal good (his son) and respond with joy when he's allowed to keep Isaac: this is a sign he has faith to the point of absurd
- Reason is antithesis of passion
 - Philosophy is all about reason
- Explores this at great length at the end when he talks about Hegel

Dialectic of faith

- Resignation : letting go of control
 - Even if things seem absurd, have infinite faith
 - Resignation lets us understand something that's always there
 - We're not in control of everything
 - We depend on God as source of life and power
 - This gives you a specific humility that nothing else can give you
 - Life's extremities show you that there's only so much you can control despite your intentions and efforts
- Faith

An Analysis of Soren Kierkegaard's Fear and Trembling Brittany Pheiffer Noble, 2017-07-05 Danish philosopher S ren Kierkegaard s 1843 book Fear and Trembling shows precisely why he is regarded as one of the most significant and creative philosophers of the nineteenth century Creative thinkers can be many things but one of their common attributes is an ability to redefine reframe and reconsider problems from novel angles In Kierkegaard s case he chose to approach the problems of faith and ethics in a deliberately artful and non systematic way Writing under the pseudonym John the Silent he declared that he was nothing of a philosopher but an amateur wanting to write poetically and elegantly about the things that fascinated him While Fear and Trembling is very much the work of a philosopher Kierkegaard s protests showed his intent to take a different path approaching his topic like no one else before him The book goes on to ask what the real nature of our personal relationship with God might be and how faith might interact with ethics What Kierkegaard asks can we make of God asking Abraham to sacrifice his only son and of Abraham obeying Arguing the unorthodox position that in following God s incomprehensible will Abraham had acted ethically Kierkegaard set out the parameters of a moral argument that remains strikingly novel over a 150 years later

Kierkegaard's 'Fear and Trembling' Clare Carlisle, 2010-07-01 S ren Kierkegaard was without question one of the most important and influential thinkers of the nineteenth century Fear and Trembling is a classic text in the history of both philosophical and religious thought that still challenges readers with its original philosophical perspective and idiosyncratic
