Human Resource Practice System in Malaysian Five-Star Hotels (UUM Press) Rozila Ahmad, 2014-01-01 Organisations including hotels usually have more than one human resource practices system. Thus, this book is written to provide an understanding of the human resource practice system for managerial and non-managerial employees in the context of the hotel industry. This book focuses specifically on five-star beach resort hotels in Malaysia. The human resource practices system for managerial employees includes empowerment, while the recruitment and selection is more thorough. Their compensation is more attractive, and their training is more rewarding. Both groups of employees are provided with a clear job description, orientation, employment security, objective performance appraisal, career development opportunity, and effective communication.

Routledge Handbook of Tourism and Hospitality Development in Vietnam Tuyen Dai Quang, Tan Vo-Thanh, 2025-03-27 Written from a range of disciplinary perspectives including local Vietnamese scientists and practitioners, the book offers valuable insights into the challenges, opportunities, and local realities of the tourism and hospitality industries. Through its six sections covering various topics such as destination development and marketing, sustainable practices, customer experience and satisfaction, community engagement and development, workforce development and education, and technology and innovation, the book provides a deep dive into the dynamics of Vietnam's tourism and hospitality landscape. It explores emerging trends, transformative experiences, and policy recommendations for sustainable growth. This book bridges a significant gap in the literature on Vietnamese tourism and hospitality, offering insights relevant to anyone interested in the future of these industries in emerging destinations beyond this region. This volume will be an invaluable resource for practitioners, policymakers, scholars, researchers, and students of tourism and hospitality.
