La Plaque Tournante Des Civilisations:

La civilisation et ses représentations Evelyne Argaud, 2006 L enseignement de la civilisation dans la didactique du français langue étrangère confronte l enseignant des questions d ordre pédagogique mais soulève également des problèmes liés aux représentations contenues dans les discours aussi bien didactiques que culturels Cet ouvrage s attache à l analyse de ces représentations travers l étude de la revue Le Français dans le Monde sur une période qui couvre une quinzaine d années à partir de la création de la revue Il s intéresse aux différents discours tenus dans la revue au nom de l enseignement de la civilisation en les articulant à l environnement historique et institutionnel L ouvrage montre comment ces discours marqués par une volonté de modernisation et de rupture avec des pratiques pédagogiques traditionnelles s inscrivaient dans une politique culturelle plus globale qui visait refonder la présence française à l étranger dans la période qui a suivi les décolonisations Les acteurs et les discours propres au domaine de l enseignement de la civilisation ont joué un rôle important dans cette entreprise car ils ont permis de renouveler l enseignement de la civilisation tout en intégrant plus étroitement la classe de langue

Rene J. Barendse,2016-07-08 The Arabian Seas is a magisterial work on the world political economy trade war power that explores the intersect of the worlds of Islam including South and Southeast Asia the Middle East and East Africa and the European world economy particularly the seafaring Portuguese Dutch and British on the eve of the modern world system It is likely to become a classic in its field and one of the pillars of the emerging literature in recent years that has begun to recast our understanding of the early modern history of Asia and the world economy underlining the early and long predominance of Asia in the world economy and showing the long and deep ties between European and Asian economic and military interactions This work centrally addresses current debates on the nature of the early modern world system and the relative strengths of East and West There are no competitors for this book but it may be compared with Braudel's masterful studies of the Mediterranean in the sense that it does for the Arabian Seas Indian Ocean World spanning South Asia the Middle East and the East African Coast and beyond what Braudel did for the Mediterranean la civilisation en Italie au temps de la Renaissance Jacob Burckhardt,1885 Culture et religion en Afrique au seuil du XXIe siecle Latoundji Laly,2017-07-19 To claim its culture to demand its right to cultural diversity or to proclaim its belonging to a group of believers and to seize the flag of that belief in order to perpetrate actions that are then called holy to terrorize others by imposing their vision Of things and its law are undoubtedly two of the most worrying features of the entry of our societies in the twenty first century which is beginning This is why the texts gathered here have been judged to be appropriate to open a serious and methodical reflection on religion and culture in Africa at the threshold of the 21st century The contributions gathered in this volume are opened by an interrogation and rather than closed end with an opening on research horizons There is something here to open up and nourish the inquiries which alone or in structured groups the specialists in the sciences of man are invited to imagine and lead on the religion and culture of Africa today
