interest to students and scholars of the crime genre identity studies and comparative literature It will also appeal to all who enjoy reading contemporary crime fiction The Pleasures of Crime David Platten,2011-12 For 150 years the French public and literati have enjoyed a love affair with crime fiction This book investigates the nature of this relationship and how through periods of dramatic social and political change in France it has flourished It challenges the conventional view of a popular genre feeding a niche market depicting crime fiction instead as a field of creative endeavour which has gradually matured into one of considerable literary fertility By inviting us to share secrets and crack codes creating suspense and at times not shirking from presenting horrific events in graphic language the crime story brings into play the intellect and emotions of its readership This book explores both this intrinsic literary value of the crime novel and its extrinsic witness to historical events and cultural trends arguing that these apparently distinct aspects are in fact dynamic interrelated parts of the same whole This blend of cultural history with literary analysis allows for the discussion of themes such as politics memory the urban environment and youth cultures mixed with case studies of major French crime writers including Gaston Leroux Georges Simenon Jean Patrick Manchette Daniel Pennac and Fred Vargas Dictionnaire amoureux de Marseille Paul Lombard,2008 P Lombard raconte ses souvenirs sur la ville de son enfance Marseille A travers son m tissage culturel et ses mutations cette ville d fie le temps Experiments with Empire Justin Izzo,2019-05-06 In Experiments with Empire Justin Izzo examines how twentieth century writers artists and anthropologists from France West Africa and the Caribbean experimented with ethnography and fiction in order to explore new ways of knowing the colonial and postcolonial world Focusing on novels films and ethnographies that combine fictive elements and anthropological methods and modes of thought Izzo shows how empire gives ethnographic fictions the raw materials for thinking beyond empire s political and epistemological boundaries In works by French surrealist writer Michel Leiris and filmmaker Jean Rouch Malian writer Amadou Hamp t B Martinican author Patrick Chamoiseau and others anthropology no longer functions on behalf of imperialism as a way to understand and administer colonized peoples its relationship with imperialism gives writers and artists the opportunity for textual experimentation and political provocation It also Izzo contends helps readers to better make sense of the complicated legacy of imperialism and to imagine new democratic futures Nottingham French Studies ,2000 The Image of the City in Literature, Media, and Society Society for the Interdisciplinary Study of Social Imagery. Conference,2003 Merian ,2006 Solea Jean-Claude Izzo,2007 The third and final installment in the remarkable Marseilles Trilogy continues Izzos distinctive brand of vibrant crime writing skillfully evoking a time and place that have captured the imaginations of readers the world over Die Marseille-Trilogie Jean C.
