

4 signs you may be going into labor

Not every mom will have all of these signs, but if you do, you'll know it's time to grab your go-bag.

Your baby drops.

A few days or weeks before delivery, the baby shifts downward into the pelvis in preparation for birth. You may experience easier breathing, but you might also feel more pressure in your pelvic area as well as some cramping.

Your cervix changes.

As your cervix begins to stretch, you may experience a small amount of blood loss, typically seen as pink or brown streaks. If you see a large amount of red blood, call your doctor or seek medical attention immediately.

You experience contractions.

You may feel your abdomen become tight, or you may experience backaches or cramps. You'll know it's the real deal — as opposed to the “warm-ups” known as Braxton-Hicks contractions — if they're regular when you time them, they become stronger, and they continue even when you drink water or change position.

Your water breaks.

You may experience a rush of fluid or just a slight trickle. Either way, it's likely a sign that your baby is on its way and it's time to go to your doctor.

Catheters, Slurs, and Pickup Lines Lisa C. Ruchti, 2012-02-11 Every day hospital nurses must negotiate intimate trust and intimate conflict in an effort to provide quality health care. However, interactions between nurses and patients which often require issues of privacy are sometimes made more uncomfortable with inappropriate behavior as when a patient has a racist and/or sexist outburst. Not all nurses are prepared to handle such intimacy, but they can all learn how to be caring. In Catheters, Slurs, and Pickup Lines, Lisa Ruchti carefully examines this fragile relationship between intimacy and professional care and provides a language for patients, nurses, and administrators to teach, conduct, and advocate for knowledgeable and skilled intimate care in a hospital setting. She also recommends best training practices and practical and effective policy changes to handle conflicts. Ruchti shows that caring is not just a personality characteristic but is work that is structured by intersections of race, gender, and nationality. Congressional Record United States. Menopause With such groundbreaking bestsellers as Women's Bodies, Women's Wisdom, and The Wisdom of Menopause, Dr. Christiane Northrup is one of today's most trusted and visionary medical experts. Now she presents her most profound and revolutionary approach to women's health. The mother-daughter relationship sets the stage for our state of health and well-being for our entire lives. Because our mothers are our first and most powerful female role models, our most deeply ingrained beliefs about ourselves as women come from them. And our behavior in relationships with food, with our children, with our mates, and with ourselves is a reflection of those beliefs. Once we understand our mother-daughter bonds, we can rebuild our own health, whatever our age, and create a lasting positive legacy for the next generation. Mother-Daughter Wisdom introduces an entirely new map of female development, exploring the five facets of feminine power, which range from the basics of physical self-care to the discovery of passion and purpose in life. This blueprint allows any woman, whether or not she has children, to repair the gaps in her own upbringing and create a better adult relationship with her mother. If she has her own daughter, it will help her be the mother she has always wanted to be. Written with warmth, enthusiasm, and rare intelligence, Mother-Daughter Wisdom is an indispensable book destined to change lives and become essential reading for all women.
