message How did he his early disciples and the Christian tradition envision the end of the world Is there a way for us to articulate together what modern science tells us about the end of the universe with the biblical and Christian claims about God who judges and who will wipe every tear Eschatology has been at the heart of Christian theology for 100 years in the West What should we do with this legacy Are there ways to move our reflection forward in our century Scholars and other interested readers will find here a wealth of insights The Return of Scepticism Gianni Paganini,2013-03-14 This collection of articles the Vercelli conference proceedings places the theme of scepticism within its philosophical tradition It explores the English philosophical thinkers the French context as well as major Italian figures and Spanish culture It pays special attention to the relationships between history of philosophical ideas and the problems rising from the history of sciences medicine physics linguistics historical scholarship in the 17th and the18th centuries Emotional Minds Sabrina Ebbersmeyer,2012-07-30 The thoroughly contemporary question of the relationship between emotion and reason was debated with such complexity by the philosophers of the 17th century that their concepts remain a source of inspiration for today s research about the emotionality of the mind The analyses of the works of Descartes Spinoza Leibniz and many other thinkers collected in this volume offer new insights into the diversity and significance of philosophical reflections about emotions during the early modern era A focus is placed on affective components in learning processes and the boundaries between emotions and reason Pragmatism Russell B. Goodman,2005 Presents key texts in and about pragmatism from its origins in nineteenth century America to its contemporary revival as an international and multi disciplinary phenomenon A Writer's Topography Jason Herbeck,Vincent Grégoire,2015-08-25 A Writer s Topography examines French Algerian Nobel Prize laureate Albert Camus s intimate yet often unsettled relationship with natural and human landscapes Much like the Greek hero Sisyphus about whom he wrote his famous philosophical essay Camus sustained a deep awareness of and appreciation for what he termed le visage de ce monde the face of this earth This wide ranging collection of essays by Camus scholars from around the world demonstrates to what extent topography is omnipresent in Camus s life and works Configurations and contemplations of landscape figure prominently in his fictional works on both a literal and figurative level from the earliest writings of his youth to his final unfinished novel Le Premier Homme Furthermore as a core component of the way in which Camus perceived conceived and expressed the human condition topography constitutes an over arching and particularly profound dimension of his personal public and philosophical thought Manuel de psychologie et de psychopathologie clinique générale René Roussillon,2014-07-01 Ce manuel pr sente la logique des processus de la vie psychique tous les ges de la vie de la naissance la vieillesse Les auteurs issus de la pens e psychanalytique retracent tout d abord l histoire de la r alit psychique de la subjectivit Ils pr sentent ensuite les logiques en large partie inconscientes qui sous tendent les formes d expression de la psychopathologie L apport des neurosciences dans le champ de la psychopathologie est galement abord Une approche projective compl te enfin cette d marche d ensemble et fournit une m thode pour m diatiser la subjectivité propre du clinicien Ainsi compose ce manuel s'adresse tous ceux qui étudiants jeunes professionnels et psychologues confirment sont soucieux d'une vue d'ensemble et actualisée de l'approche clinique de la vie psychique et des formes de sa pathologie Cette deuxième édition a été enrichie des nouvelles thématiques suivantes le travail de psychothérapie et les médiations thérapeutiques ainsi que la psychopathologie du sujet vieillissant The Origins of Life Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2012-12-06 Understanding life through its origins reveals the groundwork underlying the differentiations of its autonomous generative matrixes Following the primogenital matrix of generation the three generative matrixes of the specifically human sense of life establish humanness within the creative human condition as the existential sphere of sharing in life Le Cahier Perdu Lucien Karhausen, 2010-12 Repair the World Alexandre Gefen, 2024-08-19 Talk of repair has become ubiquitous in recent years In the age of trauma culture art and literature have a new purpose to do justice to console comfort and heal Drawing on works of twenty first century French language literature this monograph shows how literature can not only serve as a means of personal development but expand our capacity for empathy help repair the brokenness implied in victimhood and redress individual and collective traumas Centered on a critical reflection on discourses of repair and reparations it questions the canonical theories on the functions of literature and proposes a new way of writing and reading literary history Praise Repair the World is an invigorating and essential call to arms The modern category of the literary it declares is being outpaced by the contemporary uses of literature as a medium of exorcism empathy reparation testimony commemoration existential renewal and ethical or political connectivity Neither celebrating nor condemning such uses Gefen models a much needed style of criticism interdisciplinary pragmatic relational that comes to grips with their importance Rita Felski the John Stewart Bryan Professor and Professor of English at the University of Virginia USA In an era where self help memoir and autobiography command more than their fair share of publisher's lists in France it's tempting some fifty years after post structuralism's heyday to ascribe an impending death of literature to a taste for narcissistic exhibitionism in French literary culture But why bemoan the waning relevance of the question what is literature asks Alexandre Gefen when evidence abounds in the new century that literary writing increasingly posits itself as a restorative reparative act In the best instances authors who give form to embodied experience imaginatively forge with their readers empathetic bonds of the sort that secular and religious institutions long sustained Repair the World is not only a capacious study of writers who hail from surprisingly broad sectors of French society from health and social workers to skilled laborers journalists and educators it's a situated call for a pragmatics of reading that makes of each book an intervention into the fabric of the real Harnessing sources in affect theory trauma studies ethics and cognitive science Alexandre Gefen performs a critically reparative act all his own reminding us that the notion of literature as autonomous object was itself a historical construct in short an ideology Reading and writing have always conjoined care for the self and care for others and it's upon that reciprocity that the communities of sense of tomorrow can flourish in a spirit of reparative humanism Derek Schilling

Professor of French Director of the Centre Louis Marin Department of Modern Languages and Literatures Johns Hopkins University USA Alexandre Gefen's wide ranging thought provoking study takes stock of a paradigm shift in contemporary French literature away from a model of autonomy and intransitivity to ways of writing and reading that seek to repair restore reassure and rebuild From the varied forms of expressivity found in self narratives to the empathetic projections of fiction Repair the World maps out an expanding literary territory that seeks not critical negativity but rather the power to intervene for good in individual and collective life While reserving judgment on the actual extent of literature's effects Gefen demonstrates that contemporary projects and discourses undeniably center the therapeutic and remedial uses of literature With its nuanced readings and keen insights Repair the World has been rightly influential in France its powerful diagnosis of contemporary sensibilities resonates far beyond revealing both the promises and predicaments of literature in the twenty first century Alison James Professor of French and Chair of the Department of Romance Languages and Literatures at the University of Chicago USA What would it mean to ask Sartre's post war question What is literature in the 21st century In this wonderful essay Alexandre Gefen argues convincingly that the main purpose of literature today is to repair a broken world and memorialise forgotten lives Taking examples from predominantly contemporary French literature he proposes that literature as therapy has replaced religions of salvation a politics of emancipation and formal experimentation Today literature's mission is to heal traumatised individuals and communities resurrect the lives of the vulnerable and commemorate their deeds in the face of the forces of oblivion For Gefen Patrick Modiano's Dora Bruder 1997 is the contemporary literary archetype of these lost identities to be rehabilitated and reinhabited Gefen describes this new role for literature without taking sides the writing is lucid compelling and non partisan In an age of victimhood testimony empathy self expression and identity Gefen's reparative paradigm is as persuasive as Sartre's political version in the age of ideology Max Silverman Professor of Modern French Studies University of Leeds UK Japanese Writers and the West S. Okada, 2003-07-07 This book concludes Sumie Okada's trilogy concerning cultural relationships between Japan and the West This volume discusses six Japanese authors Soseki Mishima Akiko Yosano Hiroshi Yosano Endo and Murakami analysing the encounter between their traditional Japanese group consciousness and western individualism It also covers Endo's student days in Lyon and his relationship with the humanist Fran oise Pastre appending a moving account by her sister Geneviève
